Dominican Rebel Chief Firm in Opposition Stand

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Col. Francisco Caamano Deno met a U.S. representative for the first time since the Dominican rebels named him provisional president, then vowed Tuesday night he would not "take a step backward."

Caamano conferred at his headquarters with former Ambassador John Bartlow Martin, President Johnson's special envoy. The talk aroused speculation that the rebel leader would meet soon with Brig. Gen. Antonio Imbert Barreras, president of the rival civilian-military junta.

Msgr. Emanuele Clarizio, papal nuncio to the Dominican Republic, sat in on the talk between Caamano and Martin and said later he was "highly optimistic" of a settlement of the 7-year-old civil war.

Caamano, however, in an address over the rebel-held Radio Santo Domingo said: "I will not take a step backward in spite of the enormous U.S. force."

He derided the junta as "an inoperative force" and charged anew that President Johnson sent 20,000 soldiers and Marines to the Dominican Republic on the false assumption that the country was threatened by a Communist takeover.

Caamano has refused to meet with Imbert until he purges several leading officers from the armed forces. His chief foe is Brig. Gen. Elias Wessin y Wessin, commander of the San Isidro training base, who directed the forces that opposed Caamano's rebel forces.

U.S. Embassy officials said Monday that Wessin had agreed to resign but later changed his mind. Imbert said Tuesday he would accept Wessin's resignation "if it is his wish."

The unofficial total of American dead in the Dominican Republic rose to 14.

A U.S. Army lieutenant was killed and seven other paratroopers were wounded Monday night when they were caught in sniper crossfire. The rebels contended the paratroopers were five blocks outside the U.S.-policed international safety zone. A U.S. spokesman said they were inside the zone.

U.S. forces brought up a 106mm field gun and blasted two rooftops where the snipers were believed hidden. At least two Dominican civilians were reported wounded.

A rebel spokesman charged that U.S. troops have killed 22 unarmed civilians and wounded 11 since May 3.

Youth Seeks Gold To Pay For College

MARIETTA, Ga. (AP) — Steve Deakins is going back to Alaska Thursday — to work a gold-mining claim he hopes will yield enough to put him through college.

Deakins, 20, is joint owner of the claim, near Anchorage, with Ed Bowers, a geologist and licensed prospector and a friend of the Deakins family.

"We traveled around Alaska and the Yukon before staking the claim," he said. "The United States and Canada have an agreement that allows Americans to file claims in the Yukon and Canadians to prospect on American soil."

Bowers previously had a claim but last year's earthquake destroyed it. He returned with Deakins to start work from scratch.

Deakins says he will be in Alaska about 4½ months this year. He and Bowers hope to build a cabin while working their claim.

He plans to return to Georgia next winter and enter college where he would like to major in geology and then go back to Alaska.

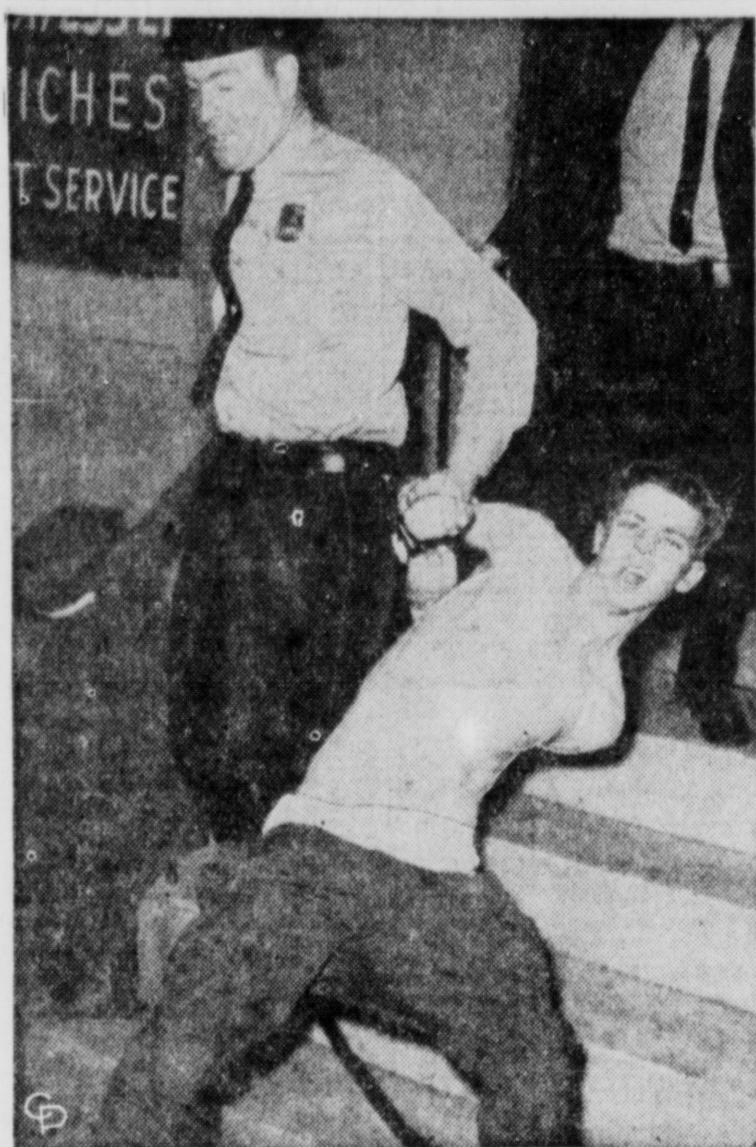

Deakins says: "Many kids go right to college without being really sure of what they want to do. That's when a lot of them begin flunking out. I think I will be better prepared by waiting."

31 Cubans Held For Assisting CIA

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Havana Radio said today the Cuban government arrested 31 Cubans on charges of supplying valuable military and economic secrets to the Central Intelligence Agency.

The broadcast, monitored in Miami, claimed the Cubans passed the secrets through the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo in Oriente Province.

Those caught had with them coded messages for the so-called "secret or invisible writing" and money orders from the CIA, the broadcast said.

Rusk Defends U.S. Action In Viet Nam, Latin Areas

LONDON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk explained U.S. policy in Viet Nam and the Dominican Republic to the Atlantic Treaty Organization conference hoping for understanding and backing from the 15-nation alliance.

Washington, went into a secret session of the North Atlantic

Treaty Organization conference

hoping for understanding and backing from the 15-nation alliance.

The NATO foreign ministers met for an hour and 15 minutes in a semisecret session—one in which the substance of their remarks were relayed later to newsmen. Then came a secret session limited to delegation heads and one with press officers and other delegation members excluded.

Diplomatic sources said

Rusk, in his talks with the Atlantic allies, intended to stress

the diplomatic complexities of the Viet Nam problem.

Rusk is expected to tell other members that the Viet Cong seems to be massing its forces, presumably for the seasonal offensive the Communists often launch with the coming of the monsoon season.

One development was the unrest voiced over the Viet Nam and Dominican Republic situations. Several foreign ministers expressed uneasiness over these

American policies. Maurice

Couve de Murville of France said the Vietnamese war would lead to conflict with Communist

China or the Soviet Union.

Another factor was a complaint by British Prime Minister

Harold Wilson that high-pressure sales campaigns by American arms manufacturers were shutting Britain out of the alliance's arms market. He warned that Britain might have to consider the effect on its reserves of hard currency.

This was taken as a threat to cut British forces in West Germany, which are assigned to

NATO, unless the cost of their maintenance is eased by arms sale to West Germany.

The United States, Britain and France formally reaffirmed that they share with the Soviet Union the responsibility for a final all-German peace settlement. The decision had been announced Tuesday.

President Charles de Gaulle's

government had wanted the declaration to reflect France's new line — that it was mainly for Europeans to work out a solution of the German problem.

This would have excluded the Americans.

A sudden retreat by Coudé de

Murville Monday night opened the way to agreement to the relief of the whole Atlantic alliance.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — In a move to take "the profit motive out of such dangerous stunts," the federal government is suing

Rod Pack, 26, who jumped from an airplane last Jan. 1 and picked up a parachute from a companion in the air.

Pack, of North Hollywood, shared in proceeds from film

sales after his countless dive near Arvin, Calif., on New

14,600 feet. At 4,000 feet he passed sky diver Bob Allen, 25, of North Hollywood.

Allen handed him a closed parachute and Pack slipped into the harness and pulled the rip cord.

The civil suit filed Tuesday by

U.S. Atty. Manuel Real seeks

$3,000 in punitive damages from

Pack and an identical sum from the pilot, Harold L. Hanes, 41, of Van Nuys, Calif.

The complaint alleges that it is illegal to jump from an airplane without a parachute; that no person may allow another to jump without a parachute and that such action is a hazard to air traffic.

Soviet Hoping To Land Spaceship Gently on Moon

MOSCOW (AP) — The unmanned Soviet spaceship Lunik 5 hurtled toward a rendezvous with the moon tonight. The Russians hoped it would land gently and start sending back information needed for a manned flight to the moon.

The 3,250-pound spacecraft, launched Sunday from an orbiting earth satellite, was expected to come down gently near the moon's southpole on a plain known as the Sea of Clouds.

The United States does not plan to soft-land an instrument package on the moon until 1966.

If Lunik 5 succeeds in letting itself down gently on the moon's surface, it will take two big steps forward in the space race:

1. It can sit on the surface and radio back to earth data of a kind that it has not been possible to obtain from photographs made by craft that crashed into the moon.

2. It will show whether a man can land on the moon with presently available types of space systems.

Tass said that "elements of the system of soft landing on the moon are being tried out for the first time on the automatic station Lunik 5."

An earlier version of this announcement said only that the spacecraft carried equipment for a soft landing.

Previous Soviet and American moon shots have either crashed into the moon, stopping the flow of radioed information, or missed it.

Scientists have said that once a soft landing is achieved, electronic devices could analyze substances on the moon's surface and send the information back to earth. Such information could be a big factor in the continuing controversy over the moon's origin.

Scientists have said, too, that similar soft landings on the planets could establish if life exists there and perhaps reveal the origin of the solar system.

Tass said that according to telemetric measurements, the systems aboard Lunik 5 were working normally.

The Soviet Union took an early lead in lunar exploration in 1959 when it sent three probes to the moon in quick succession. One of these radioed back the first pictures of the dark side of the moon.

The U.S. space probe Ranger 9, an 809-pound electronic package crammed with television cameras, sent back more than 5,000 pictures of the lunar surface before crashing into a moon crater on March 24.

Pentagon Faces Silent Vigil

Group Protests Viet Nam Bombing

WASHINGTON (AP) — An interfaith group planned to march across the Potomac today and stand outside the Pentagon in a silent vigil disapproving the bombing of North Viet Nam and urging a peaceful settlement.

In advance of the march, leaders estimated as many as 500 to 1,000 clergymen and others from around the country might join in the demonstration.

He said the demonstration was organized for four purposes, which he put this way:

"To express the sincere desire of the American people for a peaceful settlement in Viet Nam."

"To express concern at escalation of the war, especially U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam."

Columbus Man Is Captured

Wife, Drug Store Chief Are Victims

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Columbus police said today they had received word that Richard Howard Jemison, 56, wanted for a double slaying here, has been arrested in Pontiac, Livingston County, Ill.

There were no details available immediately on the arrest. Columbus police have accused the man of killing his wife and a drug store manager as well as wounding another man critically.

The search for him had been extended to nearby states after the FBI had joined in the search for the former patient of the Lima State Hospital for the Criminal Insane.

Jemison was arrested at a road block set up after Illinois State Police recognized the car from a description broadcast by Columbus police, said Sgt. Leonard Wirtz of the Illinois police.

A loaded revolver was found in the trunk of the car, but Jemison offered no resistance, Wirtz said.

"He didn't seem to understand what was happening," Wirtz said. "He knew something was wrong, but he didn't seem to understand."

Wirtz said state police trailed the car until it was halted at a roadblock near Pontiac, Ill.

Jemison was taken to Livingston County Jail in Pontiac and Wirtz said extradition proceedings had been started.

Police have filed murder charges against Jemison, accusing him of the fatal shooting Monday of John Lyman, 37, manager of a drug store at Broad and High Streets.

Police say Jemison walked into the drug store and pumped several bullets into Lyman, and Robert Aylor, 37, a district manager. Aylor remains in poor condition in the hospital.

Earlier, detectives said, Jemison had killed his wife, Virginia, in their home.

Viet Nam Buildup Now 46,500 Men

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Nearly 1,000 U.S. Army paratroopers and another combat battalion of 1,400 U.S. Marines landed in South Viet Nam today.

The paratroopers are members of the 173rd Airborne Brigade who came by boat from Okinawa to join about 2,000 members of the brigade already in Viet Nam. A U.S. spokesman said they would help defend American installations at the Bien Hoa air base 20 miles north of Saigon.

The Marines landed at Chu Lai, 52 miles southeast of the strategic U.S.-Vietnamese air base at Da Nang. They boosted to 14,000 the force of leathernecks thrown into the war against the Communist Viet Cong.

The new arrivals raised the total U.S. military force in Viet Nam to about 46,500 men.

The paratroopers included an artillery battalion which its commander, Lt. Col. Lee E. Surut, 40, of New York City, said would be the Army's "largest single concentration of firepower in the country." He said it is the first Army artillery sent to Viet Nam.

Other men of the brigade who arrived last week already have started some patrol activity in the vicinity of the Bien Hoa base but have not pushed out into the countryside. No contact with the Viet Cong has been reported.

About 5,000 Marines are now concentrated at Chu Lai. U.S. Seabees are to build an 8,000-foot jet airstrip there for two Marine attack squadrons that will give added air muscle in central Viet Nam.

The landing heightened speculation that the entire 3rd Marine Division on Okinawa eventually would be committed to the fight against the Viet Cong.

The Chu Lai Marines, now up to regimental strength, are expected to begin ranging the countryside in search of Communists.

The Marines at Da Nang, who now total about 9,000 men, have been assigned more than 100 square miles of additional territory west of the air base to be cleared of Viet Cong. Originally the Da Nang Marines were said to be assigned only defense positions around the air base.

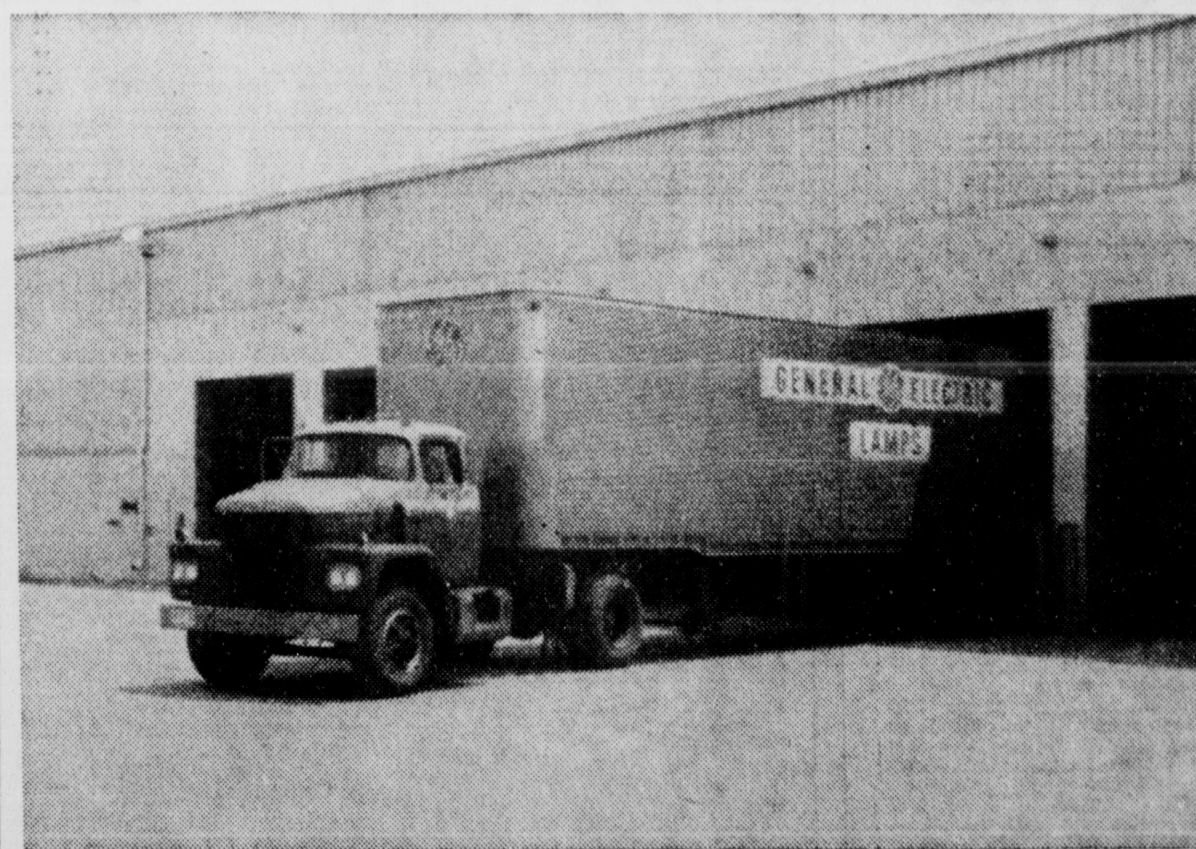

Billy Graham Invites Beatniks To Hear Talk

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—Rejecting the advice of guards, American evangelist Billy Graham invited 25 Danish beatnik types to hear him preach Tuesday night at Copenhagen's Forum Hall. Twenty of the youngsters accepted.

After hearing that the youths were barred, Graham went into the street and told them they were welcome. The youths had been barred because their appearance led some to believe they were bent on heckling.

Viet Nam Buildup Now 46,500 Men

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Nearly 1,000 U.S. Army paratroopers and another combat battalion of 1,400 U.S. Marines landed in South Viet Nam today.

The paratroopers are members of the 173rd Airborne Brigade who came by boat from Okinawa to join about 2,000 members of the brigade already in Viet Nam. A U.S. spokesman said they would help defend American installations at the Bien Hoa air base 20 miles north of Saigon.

The Marines landed at Chu Lai, 52 miles southeast of the strategic U.S.-Vietnamese air base at Da Nang. They boosted to 14,000 the force of leathernecks thrown into the war against the Communist Viet Cong.

The new arrivals raised the total U.S. military force in Viet Nam to about 46,500 men.

The paratroopers included an artillery battalion which its commander, Lt. Col. Lee E. Surut, 40, of New York City, said would be the Army's "largest single concentration of firepower in the country." He said it is the first Army artillery sent to Viet Nam.

Other men of the brigade who arrived last week already have started some patrol activity in the vicinity of the Bien Hoa base but have not pushed out into the countryside. No contact with the Viet Cong has been reported.

About 5,000 Marines are now concentrated at Chu Lai. U.S. Seabees are to build an 8,000-foot jet airstrip there for two Marine attack squadrons that will give added air muscle in central Viet Nam.

The landing heightened speculation that the entire 3rd Marine Division on Okinawa eventually would be committed to the fight against the Viet Cong.

The Chu Lai Marines, now up to regimental strength, are expected to begin ranging the countryside in search of Communists.

The Marines at Da Nang, who now total about 9,000 men, have been assigned more than 100 square miles of additional territory west of the air base to be cleared of Viet Cong. Originally the Da Nang Marines were said to be assigned only defense positions around the air base.

Billy Graham Invites Beatniks To Hear Talk

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP)—Rejecting the advice of guards, American evangelist Billy Graham invited 25 Danish beatnik types to hear him preach Tuesday night at Copenhagen's Forum Hall. Twenty of the youngsters accepted.

After hearing that the youths were barred, Graham went into the street and told them they were welcome. The youths had been barred because their appearance led some to believe they were bent on heckling.

Oklahoma Teachers Set For Boycott

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Inspired by national support, many Oklahoma teachers were ready today to boycott public schools next year to obtain upgraded educational standards.

The Oklahoma Education Association board of directors appeared more reluctant to go along with the vote Tuesday at a statewide meeting. The parent National Education Association agreed to apply nationwide sanctions against the Oklahoma school system.

"We're not ready to wreck the Oklahoma school system," OEA President Raymond Knight said for the state board of directors.

More than 8,000 of the state's 22,000 teachers attended the one-day meeting to protest failure of the legislature to increase educational appropriations and failure of a statewide vote April 27 to boost the state sales tax from 2 to 3 per cent to aid school financing.

The OEA has set a goal of $1,000-per-year salary increase for teachers. The average salary is $5,160 compared with the national average of $6,235.

Beginning salary with a bachelor's degree is $3,800.

The sanction by the NEA was requested by the Oklahoma subsidiary group which imposed its own last March.

Oklahoma teachers voted 5,383 to 1,275 in favor of next year's boycott. There were 1,038 "not sure" ballots.

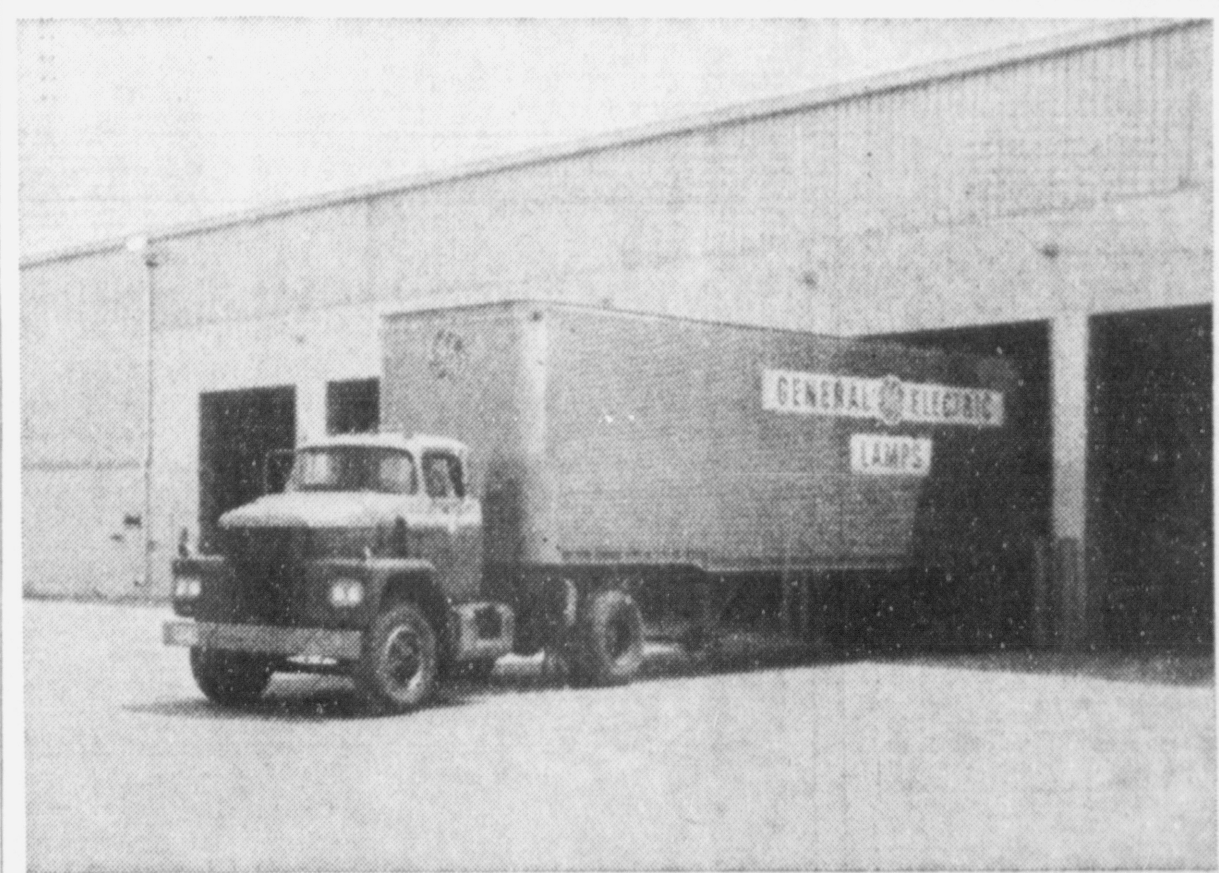

Ohio Wheat Harvest To Average 32 Bushels

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department has forecast this year's winter wheat crop acreage for Ohio at 1,167,000 acres.

University of California Urged To Make Changes

LOS ANGELES (AP) — If the University of California is to avoid future student revolts of the sort that have plagued its Berkeley campus since last autumn, the university must reorganize its structure to keep pace with the times that produce such socially committed students.

So, in essence, says a special report to university regents on basic causes of student unrest, as evidenced by the Berkeley disorders of the past eight months.

The 85-page report on a four-month study headed by Beverly Hills attorney Jerome C. Byrne was delivered to a regents' committee last week and made public Tuesday.

In a news conference Byrne stressed that he and his eight-man staff sought not to assess blame for the conflict but to identify its causes and propound a cure.

The report faults the controversial Free Speech Movement on one tactic — alleged abandoning of the principle of due process in its demand for recognition of the students' right of advocacy.

It faults the administration on several counts — ranging from alleged ineptness and vacillation in handling the disorders to structural flaws of wide scope and long standing.

It also offers 13 pages of recommendations which would: Create cardinal changes in the structure of the university and a great lessening of control by regents;

Grant students a larger degree of self-government and permit them the right of off-campus advocacy — taking positions on civil rights and foreign policy matters, for example — when such advocacy is not misrepresented as university policy. This question was the sparkplug and has remained a key issue throughout the controversy.

The first strong reaction to the Byrne report was voiced at the news conference by Board of Regents Chairman Edward W. Carter, who said, when asked how much weight he thinks fellow regents will attach to the report:

"It's stimulating, but I doubt they'll treat most of the recommendations with great seriousness. That's my personal opinion."

Chief among the report's recommendations was that the university's nine campuses be reorganized into "a commonwealth of universities," each autonomous, with a separate charter, and largely self-governing.

Military Pay Boost Asked

White Collar Aides
Also on LBJ List

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to give pay increases costing $853 million a year to military personnel and federal white-collar workers.

Johnson, in a special message, proposed a three per cent across-the-board pay raise for all civil service workers, postal employees and members of the foreign service.

The only ones within the executive branch excluded from the proposed increase would be the top policymaking officials and some 600,000 blue-collar workers whose pay already is geared to prevailing wages in the communities where they are based.

For military personnel who have had at least two years of service, an average increase of 4.8 per cent in total compensation — base pay plus allowances and fringe benefits — was proposed. Enlisted men who have served less than two years would get an increase averaging 2.7 per cent.

In another major proposal, Johnson asked Congress to authorize a government wide salary review every four years that would compare federal pay with compensation offered by private industry.

Johnson said that after such a study the president should be authorized to propose changes in salaries for top positions in the executive, legislative and judicial branches which would go into effect automatically unless disapproved by either house of Congress.

This would permit members of Congress to approve pay increases for themselves without being put in the spot of having to vote directly on the issue.

The President also plans to send Congress within the week three other measures — one authorizing overtime pay for postal workers now excluded from it, another to provide severance pay to those losing their jobs due to such developments as base closings, and a third to underwrite the moving costs of transferred personnel, military and civilian.

Urging prompt consideration of his proposals, which he said would produce results that would "more than justify their costs," Johnson said his plan would help "attract and retain in federal service the best talent in America."

The President said he wants the proposed pay increases to go into effect next Jan. 1.

Of the $853 million of annual increases, $447 million would go to military personnel and $406 million to civilians.

Great Opportunity Seen For Developing SE Ohio

Moeller opened the session by stressing a need for local initiative in getting local - federal programs under way.

Ex-School Board Chief Is Convicted

CLEVELAND (AP) — Conviction of a former suburban school board president on a conflict of interest charge should alert citizens and officials of all Ohio communities to an old and little-used state law, an assistant prosecutor said.

Albert V. Vlasak, 34, who was president of the Garfield Heights Board of Education in 1952-53, was convicted Tuesday by a Common Pleas Court jury that deliberated 1½ hours after a week's trial. Vlasak was charged with taking $2,000 as a consultant for a subcontractor who got a $20,000 contract on an $88,500 project. He admitted receiving the money while he was board president.

Judge Merle Hoddinott delayed sentence, which could be one to 10 years under the 1887 statute, and allowed Vlasak to remain free on $500 bond.

The law prohibits a person holding public office of trust by election or appointment from having an interest in a contract to purchase property, supplies or fire insurance for the governmental unit or public institution with which he is connected.

Two Receive Appointments To New Posts at Du Pont

DALE C. EDWARDS

Two appointments to the post of process engineer were announced today by officials at Du Pont's Circleville film plant.

Named to the new positions were James E. Baehr, Route 4, and Dale C. Edwards, 888 Lincoln Drive. Both are graduates of Ohio State University.

Edwards joined Du Pont in 1961 following graduation from OSU where he earned BS and MS degrees in chemical engineering. His initial assignment was as an engineer in the technical section.

The process engineer and his wife, Susan, have two children, Kathryn Jean, 1½, and Carolyn Louise, 7 months. A member of Trinity Lutheran Church, most of his organizational activities center around the American Institute of Chemists and the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers.

BAEHR became associated with Du Pont in 1962 as an engineer in the project section. He later was transferred to the technical section.

He earned a BS degree in mechanical engineering at OSU. He and his wife, Sarah, have two sons, Joseph, 4, and Jay, 2.

Baehr has served as assistant scoutmaster for Troop 205 and has assisted in Community Fund work. The family belongs to the Presbyterian Church.

Stock Mart Edges Up

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market made an irregular advance today after three straight losing sessions. Trading was active.

Aluminums resumed their rise of Tuesday which was prompted by news of price increases for aluminum products.

Selective strength among blue chips in scattered sections of the market combined to give the popular market averages a fairly good boost.

The rise on average was accomplished despite a spotty group performance by steels, motors, tobaccos, drugs and mail order-retails.

The market was mixed at the start but gradually tilted to the upside, increasing its rise as the session wore on.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.2 at 343.1 with industrials up 2.0, rails up .3 and utilities up .6.

Mississippi GOP Gets Token Vote

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Democratic candidates smashed the Mississippi Republican party's first efforts to win voters in municipal primaries and today turned toward completing their victory in the general election.

The GOP staged its first primaries in three cities Tuesday, but its candidates drew little more than token votes. Unopposed Republicans in 15 other municipalities will join GOP primary winners in facing Democrats in the general election June 8.

Republicans had primary elections for mayor in Hattiesburg and Laurel and for city council posts in Pascagoula. In each case, the Democrats outpolled the Republicans by 9-1 margins.

$25 Bond Forfeited

Wesley Amos, 207 W. Corwin St., forfeited a $25 bond posted in Circleville Municipal Court on charge of disturbing the peace and disorderly conduct filed by city police.

Ohioans with Minority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's two Democratic U. S. senators, Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young, voted with the minority Tuesday as the Senate rejected an amendment to write an anti-poll tax provision into the voting rights bill.

Military Pay Boost Asked

White Collar Aides Also on LBJ List

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to give pay increases costing $853 million a year to military personnel and federal white-collar workers.

Johnson, in a special message, proposed a three per cent across-the-board pay raise for all civil service workers, postal employees and members of the foreign service.

The only ones within the executive branch excluded from the proposed increase would be the top policymaking officials and some 600,000 blue-collar workers whose pay already is geared to prevailing wages in the communities where they are based.

For military personnel who have had at least two years of service, an average increase of 4.8 per cent in total compensation —base pay plus allowances and fringe benefits — was proposed. Enlisted men who have served less than two years would get an increase averaging 2.7 per cent.

In another major proposal, Johnson asked Congress to authorize a government wide salary review every four years that would compare federal pay with compensation offered by private industry.

Johnson said that after such a study the president should be authorized to propose changes in salaries for top positions in the executive, legislative and judicial branches which would go into effect automatically unless disapproved by either house of Congress.

This would permit members of Congress to approve pay increases for themselves without being put in the spot of having to vote directly on the issue.

The President also plans to send Congress within the week three other measures — one authorizing overtime pay for postal workers now excluded from it, another to provide severance pay to those losing their jobs due to such developments as base closings, and a third to underwrite the moving costs of transferred personnel, military and civilian.

Urging prompt consideration of his proposals, which he said would produce results that would "more than justify their costs," Johnson said his plan would help "attract and retain in federal service the best talent in America."

The President said he wants the proposed pay increases to go into effect next Jan. 1.

Of the $853 million of annual increases, $447 million would go to military personnel and $406 million to civilians.

Great Opportunity Seen For Developing SE Ohio

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is a great opportunity for economic development of communities in southeastern Ohio when they participate in programs with the federal government, Rep. Walter H. Moeller, D-Ohio, said today.

He made his comment to approximately 60 mayors and county commissioners from his congressional district. They came here to attend a seminar he arranged to brief the officials on such programs.

Moeller opened the session by stressing a need for local initiative in getting local - federal programs under way.

Robert Cantrell, assistant to Job Corps Director Sargent

Shriver, explained the recruitment program for persons interested in joining the Job Corps. He said that more than 10,000 boys and girls from Ohio have sent in cards for admission to the program.

It is better, however, for boys and girls to stay in high school rather than seek to join the Job Corps, Cantrell said.

Cantrell said 35 million people in the nation are poor and are not participating in the economy. Plenty of poor people are working, he said, but they do not earn enough to support their families or to send children to college.

Discussing the Job Corps program, he said one 6 foot 2 boy in one center learned to read for the first time.

Joseph Hagan, a special assistant to Shriver, discussing the community action program, said the federal government pays up to 90 per cent of the cost of these programs. The other 10 per cent is provided locally.

Seven of the eight counties in Moeller's congressional district are included in the Appalachian program for depressed areas.

Moeller said a massive local undertaking is needed to remake the face of Southeast Ohio and that comprehensive community development programs will cost money, big money.

Because Congress has authorized more than $6 billion in out-right grants and long-term, low-interest loans for the development, expansion and modernization of community facilities, Moeller said, there is no reason "why we cannot do the things for Southeast Ohio that so desperately need to be done."

Curious Happenings

Research in an endless array of fields has been under way at a record pace for a number of years and it shows evidence of continuing to increase in tempo and scope. Emerging from it are a number of knowledge explosions which will have a pronounced effect on society as soon as they can be digested by industry and science.

Consider the tremendous research activity involved in the fight against cancer, for example. Thousands of individual experiments have been concluded and more are started daily which, whether or not they provide the missing links to a cancer cure, will provide science with knowledge it did not possess before.

No single project has involved as much research talent as the United States space program, yet so varied are the components entering into that venture — from low-volume foods to alloys capable of withstanding previously unheard of stresses — that virtually all segments of science and industry will benefit from its stockpile of knowledge.

Offsetting some of the advantages of large, concentrated research programs such as the space projects is the shortage of talent and facilities left for other pursuits. To a large extent, the U. S. government preempts many research priorities through the sheer volume of its expenditures in this field. Tax dollars controlled by a relatively few persons, most of whom must at least consider political pressures, do not necessarily constitute the best way of establishing priorities.

But there may be a still greater waste preventing the full utilization of research successes in the difficulty of communicating these advances to the individuals who can profit by them.

Technology is leaping forward so rapidly bachelor of science degree holders frequently are nonplussed to find that which they learned in their earlier college years has become obsolete before they can apply it in practice. A physician who began practice in the '30s or '40s may lack some of the treatments and techniques of modern medicine unless he spent a great amount of time in the intervening years keeping informed.

In an age when rapid mass communication is taken for granted, technological communication seems to be faltering. This is a trend which cannot continue if the fruits of massive research are not to rot in the laboratory.

Soviet Ups, Downs

Soviet cosmonauts can ride rockets to space in spectacular fashion, but the average Russian has to walk upstairs to his apartment. Pravda has let the cat out of the bag. The Soviet Union suffers from an acute shortage of elevators.

The government sheet reports cases of new apartment buildings in several cities which remain empty because elevators are yet to be installed. The organ of the communist party also says a new showcase hotel in Moscow may have to postpone its opening because of lack of elevators.

This bit of news reveals much of the Soviet approach to life. It is not only elevators that are lacking. Soviet farm equipment is far from adequate. Russian automobiles are a joke in number, variety and performance.

The average Moscow housewife would be amazed by the household appliances that are available to — and purchased by — her American counterpart.

A reason, in addition to general debility of the Russian economy, for this, of course, that the USSR has neglected such things while concentrating on matters like the so-called space race.

Fears Unfounded

There's been a lot of noise over the "Silent Spring." The late Rachel Carson expressed fear in her best-selling book that pesticides are killing many forms of wildlife and constitute a danger to human beings who eat food sprayed with chemical pesticides.

Now a congressional subcommittee of the House Agriculture Committee has presented a report challenging Miss Carson's conclusions. The report says Miss Carson lacked proof to substantiate her charges, and calls on scientific sources to refute them.

Chemical companies and the Department of Agriculture have long insisted that pesticides in general use are safe for all animals, including people.

There can be no doubt that chemical fertilizers and pesticides have increased agricultural production. Testing procedures must not be so stringent that worthwhile products will be delayed in the laboratory and the test plot.

That's Rite; She's Got It Maid

By JOY STILEY
(For Hal Boyle)
NEW YORK (AP) — Time was when kids learned to read from newspapers, signboards and names on boxes in the grocery. If they used that method these days we'd be turning out some of the misspelling champions of all time.

There apparently is a rule among product-namers that nothing should be spelled right if it possibly can be spelled wrong. To qualify for the job, however, they themselves must be perfect spellers — otherwise, by mistake, a word might come out correctly.

To be really in style, the item or company should be known as "rite" instead of "right," preferably preceded by the word "made" spelled as "maid."

"Maid-Rite" industries and products are very much in at present, and "Bi-Rite Market" gets a double score too.

Score an extra point any time you can use a "K" instead of a "C," as in "Kut and Kurl" shop.

It is fashionable also to use "EE" for "Y" in "Kandee Kitchen" or "Saffee lock," while "Handee Andee Kustom Karpel Kane" is pretty unbeatable.

Sometimes just a change in one letter and a bit of togetherness will turn the trick —

"Bestoall Foods" for instance — or as a last resort even a hyphen, as in "Foa-Ming Cleanser."

But it's really more chic to switch things around a little more. "Plee-ing" cake mix and "Delite Kream" frosting go well together, with "Minit Mix" instant coffee for a chaser.

It isn't only product and firm names that would make Noah Webster shudder. Frozen food packages are "Reddy-Maid," all set to "Heet and Eet."

Nowadays I take my clothes to my neighborhood "Qwik Kustom Kleanser" so they can remove the spot where I dropped one of those "Krisp Karmel Chooz." It's pretty E-z after all to grow accustomed to the new spelling vogue. That's rite. I've got it maid!

Ancient Greeks left their mark on southern France in the form of place names. Nice, capital of the Riviera, gets its name from the Greek Nikeia. Antibes was once called Antipolis.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

LEON HARRIS in "The Fine Art of Political Wit," has collected these telling observations by Adlai Stevenson: "Eggheads of the world arise. You have nothing to lose but your yolks . . . Someone must fill the gap between platitudes and bayonets. . . Much of our foreign policy in the fifties was based on the power of positive brinking . . . As scarce as truth is, the supply seems greater than the demand . . . I understand that Mrs. Karl Marx, at the end of a long and bleak life, remarked, "How good it would have been if Karl had made capital instead of writing so much about it."

Texas version of the George Washington cherry tree legend: "George," his father demanded, "did you cut down that oil derrick?"

"I cannot tell a lie," declared George. "I did it with my little hatchet."

Roared his father, "George, if you can't tell a better story than that, dang it, get out of Texas and move to New York!"

Can swelling of the legs be caused by too tight a girdle?

Recently a physician made the astute observation that very tight girdles can interfere with the return flow of blood through the veins. Tight garters can produce the same type of swelling that seems to progress as the day goes on.

All swelling of the feet and legs must be carefully studied to find its exact cause.

Get Steel While It's Hot

By John Chamberlain

The British Laborites, who have not yet managed to shuffle off the last vestiges of doctrinaire socialism, still persist in the delusion that the way to cure inefficiency in steel manufacture is to "nationalize" the big steel companies. But in America we cling to the anti-trust approach to insure competitive efficiency — and thereby hangs a tale that the British should be pondering.

Specifically, the British Laborites should have had observers spotted at the Bethlehem Steel Corporation's Lackawanna, New York, plant on this merry morning of May 11. If they were there, these observers would be witnessing a remarkable sight. They would be watching as an 80-car unit train developed by the New York Central Railroad backs up to the Lackawanna mill's loading platforms, ready to receive hot steel slabs ranging from 900 to 1,200 degrees Fahrenheit. Anchored by chains and placed on insulating cross beams in the gondola cars, the steel slabs going out of Lackawanna are destined for the new $350 million Bethlehem rolling and tinplate mills at a point 500 miles away in Burns Harbor, Indiana. Still warm on arrival the slabs will be fed into a production line that has not basic steel facilities to supply it with raw hot steel in the immediate Indiana-South Chicago area.

What today's unit hot slab operation on the New York Central signifies is the emancipation of steel makers from the necessity of having totally integrated facilities all in one place.

From now on the steel man who can command the cooperation of a progressive railroad will be able to compete almost anywhere without having to invest millions for heavy basic steel-making equipment. As the New York Central's President Alfred Perlman puts it in learned technical lingo, "By shipping slabs via unit train, we minimize the delay factor traditionally in non-integrated production."

Why does this carry a moral for British Laborites? Well, if "nationalization" had been invoked to increase steel availability in the Indiana-South Chicago region, nobody would have thought of trying to link basic hot slab mills in western New York State with new rolling capacity 500 miles away on the shores of Lake Michigan. "Nationalization" does not provide for an ingenious tie-in between a great railroad seeking new freight sources and a steel company that has not seen its way clear to make a new investment in completely integrated facilities in a new place.

If the British would give up the nationalization fetish and turn to the anti-trust approach, they would have a relatively foolproof method of encouraging steel competition. True enough, the anti-trust approach, in America, is not as easily reasonably applied. Some years ago the Bethlehem Steel people, wishing to become competitive with U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, and Inland Steel in the Indiana-South Chicago area, tried to effect a merger with the Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company, which is a Midwest operator. With Youngstown facilities, Bethlehem would not have had to make a huge new investment in the Midwest. But the Department of Justice turned Bethlehem down on the merger proposition, arguing that it would increase steel "monopoly."

This, on its face, was silly. For a Bethlehem-Youngstown merger of Midwest facilities would have led to increased competition within the area involved. U. S. Steel, Republic and Inland would have had to look to their Midwest laurels.

The point for the "nationalizers" is that this misapplication of the anti-trust law did not stop Bethlehem from becoming a Midwest competitor of U. S. Steel and Republic Steel. The company merely shifted its approach. It turned to the New York Central Railroad for help and came up with a method of bringing hot steel slabs from a plant which it already owned in western New York State to new rolling mills which it could afford to build in Indiana. The Youngstown-Indiana facilities were not needed.

What this demonstrates is that the American system is foolproof. Where "anti-trust" helps fine and dandy. But even where it hurts it can't hurt permanently. The British should look into this before they ruin their steel industry with "nationalization."

The Business World

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK (AP) — Forecasters of an imminent economic slowdown may have to revise their time schedules once more.

Halfway through the second quarter, business on the average is holding close to the record pace set in the first three months of the year.

Many had predicted a letdown about now after what they dubbed the two feverish activity in the first quarter. But so far, slips here and there are being offset by continuing gains in other sectors. The general slowdown may come, but it hasn't registered in the statistics yet.

Two sectors of industry most suspect are steel and autos, both booming in the first three months for reasons that in part at least seemed temporary.

Steel stocks were being built up under threat of a May 1 strike deadline now postponed till Sept. 1.

Autos were being turned out in record numbers, partly to make up for time lost in last fall's strikes.

But auto sales are still high, if a bit below the record February levels. And the public has yet to register any letdown in desire to buy new cars.

Steel demand is reported still strong. Output is off slightly from the record tonnage poured in the week ended April 24 but is 9 per cent higher than a year ago.

Order backlogs in industry as a whole have been rising. And inventories in general have been growing, due in large part to businessmen's belief that future sales prospects will mean busy production lines.

At the consumer level demand remains high for most goods. Retail sales of nondurable goods edged higher in April. There was one per cent slip in durable goods volume, mostly due to fewer cars being sold than in March. But total retail sales, at $22.8 billion, were 7 per cent above the volume in April 1964 — and hardly a convincing sign of any economic slowdown as yet.

Employment rose 901,000 in April, and unemployment dropped 188,000. The 71 million Americans with jobs were as a whole enjoying higher incomes than a year ago. And all signs point to another increase in total personal incomes this quarter from the record set earlier in the year. The high rate of consumer spending, and the record level of installment credit, seems to assure little, if any, letdown in general economic activity.

Much of the fear of a slow down comes from the greater than-predicted growth of the general economy in the first three months of the year from the levels set in the final months of 1964.

But even if this rate of growth isn't maintained in the second quarter, that's far from meaning that the second quarter can't be better in total volume than the first. And at the half way point there are no convincing signs that it won't be.

Ohio Senate Eyes Sunday Liquor Sales

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Liquor, wines, and "high" beer could be sold on Sunday under a measure which headed to an uncertain fate today in the Ohio Senate.

Four big-city senators introduced the proposal under which intoxicating beverages could be sold, subject to local option, on Sunday between the hours of 1 p.m. and midnight.

Under present law, only "low" beer, with an alcohol content of no more than 3.2 per cent, may be sold during those hours. The bill up for a vote today would set Ohio's only "dry" period at 2:30 a. m. to 2 p. m. on Sundays.

Sponsors of the measure are Cleveland Democrats David Matia, Anthony Novak, and Ray T. Miller Jr., along with Sen. Michael J. Maloney, Cincinnati Republican.

Bills on the House calendar today include proposals involving the disposition of unclaimed cemetery lots and permitting the display of flasher lights or lanterns on horse-drawn vehicles.

Tuesday's legislative action was highlighted by House defeat of a proposal to lower the voting age from 21 to 19 and passage in the Senate of a bill allowing general health districts to license plumbers.

Debate flared for 45 minutes on the voting age resolution sponsored by Democratic Reps. Anthony O. Calabrese Jr. of Cleveland and Douglas Applegate, D-Jefferson.

The vote was close, with 71 House members favoring the resolution and 62 dissenting. Eighty-three votes, or a three-fifths majority, are needed to place a constitutional amendment on the statewide ballot.

In other action Tuesday, the House passed and sent to the Senate bills to: —Authorize commissioners of a county or adjoining counties to establish regional transit authorities.

—Require packaged fresh fruit and vegetables to be fully labeled.

—Allow sheriff's to remove vehicles abandoned on private property for more than 72 hours.

—Allow the sale of duplicates of lost hunting licenses for 50 cents.

—Create a board of building standards for licensing and inspection of boiler tanks.

Sen. Oliver Ocasek, D-Summit, and Sen. Charles W. Whalen, R-Montgomery, sponsored the proposal that would permit general health districts to license plumbers, a power already given city health districts.

Opponents of the bill included Sen. Ross Pepple, R-Allen, who called it "just one more licensing bill that is going to increase costs to the public and give special privileges to a special group."

Senators voted 17-12 for passage, with 17 affirmative votes required.

Three measures were introduced during the busy sessions, including one to implement the $200 million bond issue approved by voters May 4.

Ocasek offered an Education Department bill permitting persons under 18 to work at jobs for which they have had vocational training, while Garrigan proposed transferring Erie Canal lands to the city of Akron.

The Senate had been scheduled to vote on a measure to decrease the size of freight train crews from five to four but on a motion by the sponsor, Sen. Richard Metcalf, R-Franklin, the bill was referred to the Rules Committee.

Opposition to the bill had been sounded earlier from members of both parties. Metcalf conceded the measure lacked enough support to pass.

U.S. in Middle of Korean Student Hassle

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—South Korean students, after a year of silence, are back on the warpath against the government over moves to bring about a diplomatic and political rapprochement with Japan.

The United States is caught in the middle of the dispute.

The student campaign seems to put a crimp in nearly successful negotiations for re-establishment of relations which have lapsed for 14 years. The reasoning behind the campaign is sometimes obscure but the fear seems to be that Japan will dominate South Korea economically and return to the commanding position it held during 35 years of colonial occupation that ended in 1945.

Demonstrations a year ago forced President Chung Hee Park to suspend his talks with Japan. But the president, a former general, doesn't seem inclined to back down this time.

He says normal ties with Japan will give the South Korean economy a needed shot in the arm. The United States feels the same way, would like to see unity between these old enemies who now are U.S. allies and in the forefront of anti-communism.

The student slogans have centered chiefly around abolition of the Rhee line which bars Japanese — and all other — fishermen from fishing in waters within as much as 100 miles from Korea.

The fishermen are believed less concerned than the student since the new agreement would limit the number of Japanese boats in the area and Japan would extend important financial help to modernize the South Korean fishing industry.

The deeper worry was spelled out by a 22-year-old student at

Seoul National University, who said:

"Japan will try to make Korea a market for her own products as she did during her colonial rule. Billions of dollars of American aid money poured into our country before and after the Korean War but the economy is still very weak."

"I don't see how 400 or 500 million dollars of Japanese money spread over a period of 10 years could make any significant contribution, especially when the money would be spent in such a way that Japan would benefit from it."

Part of the final settlement is that Japan make a $300-million grant against Korean property claims and $200-million in government-to-government loans.

The United States comes in for criticism in an indirect way.

"Earlier this century the United States served as go-between and helped arrange the Portsmouth Peace Treaty between Japan and Russia (ending the Russo-Japan War of 1904). This opened the way for Japanese annexation of Korea, in an effort to check Russia's increasing influence over Korea."

"Now, the United States is trying to justify an economic invasion of Korea by Japan in an effort to make Japan the leader among Asian countries in opposing Communist China's expansionism," one student said.

Great Lakes Low Water Level Eyed

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. (AP)—Continuing low water levels have forced most recently-built Great Lakes vessels to operate at less than peak capacity, the International Joint Commission has been told.

The comment was made by Oliver T. Burnham, vice president of the Lake Carriers' Association, Burnham testified at a hearing here on factors affecting water level fluctuation in the lakes.

Burnham said nearly all recently built ships have navigating drafts that equal or exceed the 25 feet 6 inches presently available in the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The deepened connecting channels in the Great Lakes—most of which were completed three years ago—would have permitted use of ships with similar dimensions on the lakes, Burnham added.

But lowered water levels have largely offset the benefits of the deepened channels, he added, and vessels with these immersions are unable to use the St. Mary's, St. Clair and Detroit rivers.

Clevelanders Plans To Split Inheritance with Brother

CLEVELAND (AP)—John Godfrey has inherited nearly $1 million. What does he plan to do with it?

—Split it with his brother.

—Stay in the same neighborhood.

—Not spend it for anything fancy.

—Probably get an unlisted telephone number.

"We'll try not to let the money change our way of life," said the $140-a-week dock worker for a trucking firm. Godfrey, 53, of suburban Lyndhurst, inherited $902,000 from Miss Mary Godfrey, an aunt who died in Cincinnati in January.

The announcement was made Tuesday by the family attorney, Albert Wettstein of Cincinnati. Miss Godfrey, a 75-year-old spinster, made the fortune dabbling in the stock market. Her family had passed on savings over the years and she invested mostly in blue-chip stocks and government securities.

Godfrey, father of two young boys and a girl, has agreed to give 40 per cent of the inheritance to his brother Robert, 45, of Cincinnati. Robert was left $5,000 by his aunt's will.

"There's enough for both of us," Godfrey said.

Mrs. Godfrey said the family probably would stay in the same neighborhood. "We like it here," she said. "We don't want people to think we're snooty because of the money." They live in a modest, ranch type house.

The parents have permitted no pictures to be taken because, they said, they want to protect the children, Johnny, 7, Ella Marie, 6, and Robert, 5. Mrs. Godfrey said the phone started ringing once the news was out.

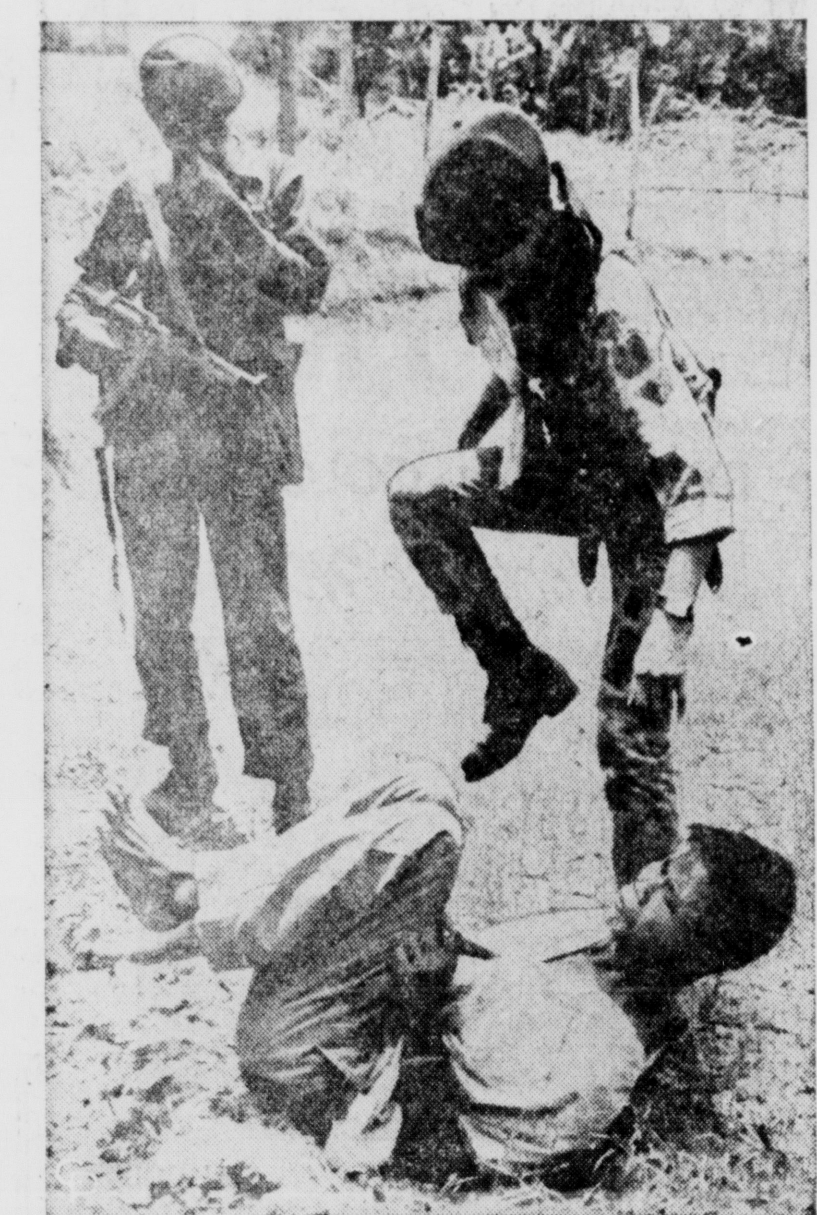

"We probably will get an unlisted number," she said.

Mrs. Godfrey said her husband plans to take the day off today—but only because she has a doctor's appointment. "He'll be back to work tomorrow, though," she said, "loading and unloading trucks."

The United States comes in for criticism in an indirect way.

"Earlier this century the United States served as go-between and helped arrange the Portsmouth Peace Treaty between Japan and Russia (ending the Russo-Japan War of 1904). This opened the way for Japanese annexation of Korea, in an effort to check Russia's increasing influence over Korea."

NEW YOUNGSTER FOR ZOO—Mrs. June Lambern is a bit apprehensive as she removes a shipping tag from the neck of Andy, a 6-month-old anteater sent from Bogota, Colombia, to the zoo in Denver, Colo. Zoo representative Cranfill Dyke is watching.

"Now, the United States is trying to justify an economic invasion of Korea by Japan in an effort to make Japan the leader among Asian countries in opposing Communist China's expansionism," one student said.

Great Lakes Low Water Level Eyed

SAULT STE. MARIE, Ont. (AP) —Continuing low water levels have forced most recently-built Great Lakes vessels to operate at less than peak capacity, the International Joint Commission has been told.

The comment was made by Oliver T. Burnham, vice president of the Lake Carriers' Association. Burnham testified at a hearing here on factors affecting water level fluctuation in the lakes.

Burnham said nearly all recently built ships have navigating drafts that equal or exceed the 25 feet 6 inches presently available in the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The deepened connecting channels in the Great Lakes—most of which were completed three years ago—would have permitted use of ships with similar dimensions on the lakes, Burnham added.

But lowered water levels have largely offset the benefits of the deepened channels, he added, and vessels with these immersions are unable to use the St. Mary's, St. Clair and Detroit rivers.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Held by Lutheran Women

The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet of Trinity Lutheran Church Women was held Monday evening in the parish house. A ham dinner was served to 200 guests. The meal was prepared by the ladies of the St. Paul's AME church, and was served by the young men of the Senior and Junior Luther League groups as a special service to their mothers.

"Mothers All over the World" was the theme of the program and the tables were decorated with appropriate items from various countries. A large globe was displayed as well as a huge map of the world, travel posters and flags of all the nations. This display was loaned to the group through the courtesy of the Rotary Club.

The table prayer was led by Pastor Carl Zehner. Toastmistress for the evening was Mrs. James Palm. Mrs. Gladness Troutman gave the toast to the daughters and Miss Norma Troutman responded. Folk songs which had been prepared especially for the occasion were sung by Miss Cheryl Hulise and Miss Christine Zehner, accompanied at the piano by Miss Melissa Matz. They sang "The Little Ole", and "Walking at Night".

An exercise entitled "Mother" was performed by Branda Spangler, Judy List, Susan Hoffman, Linda Fisher, Rojanne Bowers and Cheryl Emhardt. A "Mexican Hat Dance" was done by Vickie Bowers, Lynn Easter, Debbie Eberly, Debbie Redman and Valerie Cross. Linda Hoffman played the piano for the dance.

Pots of geraniums were awarded to Mrs. Elmer Wolf for being the oldest mother present, and to Mrs. James F. Mapes (formerly Mary Alice Pickel) for being the youngest mother present. These awards were made by Mrs. Merton Lortentz.

A style show of clothing from foreign countries was presented. It was narrated by Mrs. Hilary Holste who introduced the following: Mrs. Anna Marie Nehrenz, formerly a missionary to Mexico, and Paula and Loche Mackenzie who were wearing Mexican clothing; Barbara Mackenzie and Kathy Deckard wore outfits from Germany.

Mrs. Gerald Bowers modeled and Indian sari; Nancy Pickel and Pam Parker wore costumes from Hawaii; a Hungarian dress was shown by Emily Moon; Lissa Rihl showed a typical dress of a Christian New Guinea native; Mrs. Ruth Rihl and her daughter Carla modeled outfits from Japan.

Holland dresses were shown by Mrs. John Pontius, Elizabeth Moon and Kathy Bowers, who also wore wooden shoes. Authentic African clothes were worn by Miss Bonnie Wells and Miss Carol Hoover.

The concluding country whose costumes were shown was England. This country was represented by Doug Good, Larry Tipton, Rodney Kasler and Del Compton who appeared as The Beatles. They gave a pantomime to a Beatle record and sang several songs.

Mrs. Edward Cross, program chairman, was assisted by the education chairmen from all the circles. Table decorations were as follows: Circle No. 1, Mexico; No. 2, Ireland; No. 3, Programs; No. 4, New Guinea; No. 5, Japan; No. 6 Holland.

The Lord's Prayer was repeated by the group.

Others attending were Mrs. Una Higman, Mrs. Maralyn Armentrout and daughter, Peggy, Mrs. Virginia Higman and daughter, Beth, Mrs. Sandra Gearhardt, Mrs. Alta Jones, Mrs. Viva Hastings, Mrs. Inez Lingo and Mrs. Ray Anderson.

New Products Help Make Life Easier

By ELEANOR ROSS

A wonderful array of products went on show at the recent National Housewares Exhibit in New York.

Professional buyers placed orders in depth for items that are coming into the stores to ease and delight the lady of the house and the lord of the manor. In all, more than 25,000 items, new or improved, were exhibited for the home and yard.

New safety will be found in a low-voltage garden lighting system, complete with a shock-proof transformer that reduces house current to 12 volts. All-weather colored lights can be attached anywhere along the cable, which doesn't have to be buried in the ground.

Citronella candles, in hobnail-decorated, re-usable containers, offer another simple means of outdoor lighting. Grass seed formulated for planting in the rain makes lawn renewal an all-weather chore.

Compact plastic fencing stretches and curves to enclose outdoor areas simply.

Now let's go indoors, where we find the use of the easy-to-clean pots and pans on the increase. Manufacturers are offering these coated utensils in ovenware, in electrical units, and in treated glassware for non-stick, greaseless cooking, and the elimination of scouring.

An entirely new principle in electric can openers is scheduled for introduction. Instead of cutting into the can, the new product separates the seam that fastens the top and side, eliminating any contact with the contents—an excellent and sanitary innovation.

The manufacturer claims that this opener eliminates the possibility of transferring the odor of fish or other stronger flavors to fruit, baby foods and other more delicate contents.

For the man of the house, there is a new attachment that converts all power drills to three-speed operation and provides a two-speed angle drive for sanding or buffing.

And for those who may not want to spread candles all over the top of a birthday cake, there is a simple single candle that can be snapped onto the correct number indicating the years.

In the decorative arts, a manufacturer offers an outsized map of the ancient world; another offers handsome Greek coin wall plaques.

Rayon binding fastened by no-scratch self-locking buckles will prove a boon for do-it-yourself handymen puzzled by their efforts to bind newly reglued furniture tightly.

And to make steam pressing even easier, there is a new iron with 36 vents, the largest number offered, for more even distribution of moisture.

Some good cooks like to give lamb chops a savory marinade before broiling, baking or pan-frying.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Held by Lutheran Women

The annual Mother-Daughter Banquet of Trinity Lutheran Church Women was held Monday evening in the parish house. A ham dinner was served to 200 guests. The meal was prepared by the ladies of the St. Paul's AME church, and was served by the young men of the Senior and Junior Luther League groups as a special service to their mothers.

"Mothers All over the World" was the theme of the program and the tables were decorated with appropriate items from various countries. A large globe was displayed as well as a huge map of the world, travel posters and flags of all the nations. This display was loaned to the group through the courtesy of the Rotary Club.

The table prayer was led by Pastor Carl Zehner. Toastmistress for the evening was Mrs. James Palm. Mrs. Gladden Troutman gave the toast to the daughters and Miss Norma Troutman responded. Folk songs which had been prepared especially for the occasion were sung by Miss Cheryl Hulse and Miss Christine Zehner, accompanied at the piano by Miss Melissa Matz. They sang "The Little Ole", and "Walking at Night".

An exercise entitled "Mother" was performed by Branda Spangler, Judy List, Susan Hoffman, Linda Fisher, Rojanne Bowers and Cheryl Emhardt. A "Mexican Hat Dance" was done by Vickie Bowers, Lynn Easter, Debbie Eberly, Debbie Redman and Valerie Cross. Linda Hoffman played the piano for the dance.

Pots of geraniums were awarded to Mrs. Elmer Wolf for being the oldest mother present, and to Mrs. James F. Mapes (formerly Mary Alice Pickel) for being the youngest mother present. These awards were made by Mrs. Merton Lortenz.

A style show of clothing from foreign countries was presented. It was narrated by Mrs. Hilary Holste who introduced the following: Mrs. Anna Marie Nehrenz, formerly a missionary to Mexico, and Paula and Loche Mackenzie who were wearing Mexican clothing; Barbara Mackenzie and Kathy Deckard wore outfits from Germany.

Mrs. Gerald Bowers modeled and Indian sari; Nancy Pickel and Pam Parker wore costumes from Hawaii; a Hungarian dress was shown by Emily Moon; Lissa Rihl showed a typical dress of a Christian New Guinea native; Mrs. Ruth Rihl and her daughter Carla modeled outfits from Japan.

Holland dresses were shown by Mrs. John Pontius, Elizabeth Moon and Kathy Bowers, who also wore wooden shoes. Authentic African clothes were worn by Miss Bonnie Wells and Miss Carol Hoover.

The concluding country whose costumes were shown was England. This country was represented by Doug Good, Larry Tipton, Rodney Kasler and Del Compton who appeared as The Beatles. They gave a pantomime to a Beatle record and sang several songs.

Mrs. Edward Cross, program chairman, was assisted by the education chairmen from all the circles. Table decorations were as follows: Circle No. 1, Mexico; No. 2, Ireland; No. 3, Programs; No. 4, New Guinea; No. 5, Japan; No. 6 Holland.

The Lord's Prayer was repeated by the group.

"GUMPA'S" MATE

DEAR MATE: "Gumpa" appears to be YOUR weakness. My guess is you'd be lost without him, so stick with him. If Father Time doesn't take care of his "weakness" Mother Nature will.

DEAR ABBY: As a man who has to contend with the telephone in his office, I anticipate retreating to my nice quiet home at the end of the day. Put, alas, this seems to be the prime time for the ladies to call each other to arrange their bridge parties, church socials, car pools, etc. What do these women do all day that they can't get these things arranged beforehand?

SICK OF PHONES

DEAR SICK: They're attending bridge parties, church socials and they're driving the kids around.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 17-year-old boy with a big problem—my parents. They are the most wonderful parents a boy could want, but between the two of them they smoke three cartons of cigarettes a week. My mother is very nervous and the doctor told her to cut down. She promised she would, but she hasn't. My father smokes unconsciously. He'll set a cigarette down in an ash tray, let it burn and light another one. Both Dad and Mom cough all the time. What can a 17-year-old boy do to get his parents to quit smoking? I know nobody can live forever, but why can't people take better care of their health?

CONCERNED SON

DEAR CONCERNED: Obviously your parents are not strong enough to set a good example for you. So YOU set one for them, and my hat's off to you!

DEAR ABBY: I am a 21-year-old divorcee and I've never had any trouble getting dates. My problem is that every man I date thinks that just because I've been married anything goes. It is very discouraging to have to fight off men all the time. The first thing they suggest is going up to their apartments, or to a motel or something like that. I love to dance and I enjoy a good time. What happened to all the decent men?

SUZANNE

DEAR SUZANNE: They're still around. You seem to be attracting the wrong kind. Change bait.

Post-Civil War Laws Still in Rights Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil War made the United States rights conscious and in the years following Congress burst forth with a flurry of civil rights legislation.

One of the laws passed in the Reconstruction Days made it a crime for two or more people to conspire to deprive anyone of his constitutional rights. A second and companion statute prohibited such action "under color of any law."

Now, almost a century later, they are the key weapons in the administration's program to protect Negroes' civil rights in the South.

The weapon has been blunted by federal judges who think the laws are stretched out of shape when they are used in racist murder cases.

But until Congress provides more appropriate legislation, the Justice Department has to depend on them to see that at least some punishment is meted out in civil rights crimes.

Murder is a state crime unless it is committed on federal property. But Southern injuries rarely have convicted white men in the slaying of a Negro. And when state officials won't prosecute in a murder case, federal authorities find themselves hard put for a way to intervene.

So the Justice Department continues to travel the 1870 road and keeps running into roadblocks. The Supreme Court recently agreed to consider its request that the road be cleared.

The case that the court agreed to review — probably not until next fall — grows out of the slayings of three young civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss., last June.

Last January, a federal grand jury returned felony indictment against 17 white men under the 1870 conspiracy law, accusing them of acting together to deprive the slain rights workers of their constitutional rights by plotting their murder. The maximum penalty upon conviction would be 10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

A month later, U.S. Dist. Judge Harold W. Cox, sitting in Meridian, Miss., dismissed the indictment, ruling that the law had been misused to cover a "heinous crime against the State of Mississippi but not a crime against the United States."

A misdemeanor indictment under the second law was allowed to stand against three law enforcement officers. This "police brutality" statute carries a lesser penalty of not more than a $1,000 fine, a year in prison, or both.

Last December, another federal judge, William A. Bootle, sitting in Macon, Ga., dismissed an indictment obtained under the conspiracy law against four Ku Klux Klansmen accused of slaying Lemuel Penn, a Negro educator.

Test Dinner Prepared for Inlaw-To-Be

LONDON (AP)—For Marilyn Potts, the recipe for getting a husband is roast lamb, potatoes and peas.

Marilyn, who is 18, met Paul Reed, 25. Two months ago they decided to wed.

Marilyn's mother objected. She said her daughter was too young, and furthermore she could cook only eggs and bacon.

Paul's mother suggested that Marilyn cook her a Sunday dinner.

Marilyn agreed and appealed to the court for permission to marry Paul if she passed the cooking test.

In England, a person under 21 can marry without parental permission only if a court approves.

Marilyn served roast lamb, peas and potatoes Sunday.

"The meal was delicious," said Paul's mother. "She certainly proved to me that she could cook and look after my son."

Monday the court gave Marilyn permission to wed Paul.

Marilyn's mother made no comment.

Castro Opens Drive To Hike Sugar Output

HAVANA (AP) — Before Fidel Castro came to power 6 1/2 years ago, every Cuban knew the truth in the saying, "As sugar goes, so goes the economy."

After unsuccessfully trying to change that fact, today's Communist leaders are reviving the old capitalist refrain.

They are embarked on a program to push sugar production up to its pre-Castro level, and even beyond, in an effort to stabilize the island's wobbly economy.

The aim is to produce 10 million tons of sugar a year by 1970, almost double the usual pre-Castro crop.

This year's production already has passed five million tons, officials say, and it will hit six million by June 10.

The effort this year has consisted primarily of starting the harvest earlier than usual, of sending thousands of volunteers into the fields to cut the cane, and an increase in the use of cutting and loading machines.

A master plan calls for spending $451.6 million between now and 1970 to increase sugar mill capacity and further mechanize the harvest.

The money apparently will come from the Soviet Union.

The new emphasis on sugar production came after the failure of an all-out industrialization drive which Castro began on taking power.

That drive, plus a series of setbacks at the hands of nature, drove sugar production down to 3.8 million tons in 1963. Last year's crop wasn't much better.

The government never released an official figure for it.

Agriculture in general has suffered from neglect. Food shortages plague the island.

annual SHARE Boomtown party is history. And the wives of the men who run the industry no longer are rehearsing for their annual roles as chorus girls.

The SHARE party is the year's swinger — and each year it tops itself.

The entertainers this year included such names as Frank Sinatra, Andy Williams, Jack Benny, Lucille Ball, Wayne Newton, Phil Silvers, Joe E. Lewis, John Wayne, Dean Martin, Polly Bergen, Jo Stafford, Paul Weston, Henry Mancini. And even a Beatle-like combo that featured Dino Martin Jr., and Desi Arnez Jr.

But it's always the SHARE girls themselves who steal the show. For three months, they rehearse long hours and come up with routines that would make a Ziegfeld proud.

Some of the girls in the group are pros like Laraine Day, Janet Leigh, Barbara Rush, Miss Bergen and Miss Stafford, but mostly they are the wives of showbusiness executives or stars like Mrs. John Wayne, Mrs. Dean Martin, Mrs. Andy Williams, Mrs. Howard Keel and Mrs. Henry Mancini.

SHARE was founded 12 years ago to help mentally retarded children. In the 12 years, the girls have raised more than a million dollars and built a clinic and guidance center at the Exceptional Childrens Foundation.

It's the only facility of its kind in the western half of the United States and so far has treated 35,000 mentally retarded children.

The most recent party raised $250,000, enough to operate the clinic for a year.

Everybody wears Western or historic garb.

The stars, besides entertaining for nothing, pay $100 a head and donate huge sums in an auction.

Wayne bought his wife, Pilar, a $10,000 necklace. George Peppard bought his fiancée, Elizabeth Ashley, a $4,000 coat.

The auction is all clear profit. Many of the same stars and executives donate the gifts they later bid on.

Post-Civil War Laws Still in Rights Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil War made the United States rights conscious and in the years following Congress burst forth with a flurry of civil rights legislation.

One of the laws passed in the Reconstruction Days made it a crime for two or more people to conspire to deprive anyone of his constitutional rights. A second and companion statute prohibited such action "under color of any law."

Now, almost a century later, they are the key weapons in the administration's program to protect Negroes' civil rights in the South.

The weapon has been blunted by federal judges who think the laws are stretched out of shape when they are used in racist murder cases.

But until Congress provides more appropriate legislation, the Justice Department has to depend on them to see that at least some punishment is meted out in civil rights crimes.

Murder is a state crime unless it is committed on federal property. But Southern injuries rarely have convicted white men in the slaying of a Negro. And when state officials won't prosecute in a murder case, federal authorities find themselves hard put for a way to intervene.

So the Justice Department continues to travel the 1870 road and keeps running into roadblocks. The Supreme Court recently agreed to consider its request that the road be cleared.

The case that the court agreed to review — probably not until next fall — grows out of the slayings of three young civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss., last June.

Last January, a federal grand jury returned felony indictment against 17 white men under the 1870 conspiracy law, accusing them of acting together to deprive the slain rights workers of their constitutional rights by plotting their murder.

The maximum penalty upon conviction would be 10 years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

A month later, U.S. Dist. Judge Harold W. Cox, sitting in Meridian, Miss., dismissed the indictment, ruling that the law had been misused to cover a "heinous crime against the State of Mississippi but not a crime against the United States."

A misdemeanor indictment under the second law was allowed to stand against three law enforcement officers. This "police brutality" statute carries a lesser penalty of not more than a $1,000 fine, a year in prison, or both.

Last December, another federal judge, William A. Bootle, sitting in Macon, Ga., dismissed an indictment obtained under the conspiracy law against four Ku Klux Klansmen accused of slaying Lemuel Penn, a Negro educator.

Test Dinner Prepared for Inlaw-To-Be

LONDON (AP)—For Marilyn Potts, the recipe for getting a husband is roast lamb, potatoes and peas.

Marilyn, who is 18, met Paul Reed, 25. Two months ago they decided to wed.

Marilyn's mother objected. She said her daughter was too young, and furthermore she could cook only eggs and bacon. Paul's mother suggested that Marilyn cook her a Sunday dinner.

Marilyn agreed and appealed to the court for permission to marry Paul if she passed the cooking test.

In England, a person under 21 can marry without parental permission only if a court approves.

Marilyn served roast lamb, peas and potatoes Sunday.

"The meal was delicious," said Paul's mother. "She certainly proved to me that she could cook and look after my son."

Monday the court gave Marilyn permission to wed Paul.

Marilyn's mother made no comment.

Castro Opens Drive To Hike Sugar Output

HAVANA (AP) — Before Fidel Castro came to power 6½ years ago, every Cuban knew the truth in the saying, "As sugar goes, so goes the economy."

After unsuccessfully trying to change that fact, today's Communist leaders are reviving the old capitalist refrain.

They are embarked on a program to push sugar production up to its pre-Castro level, and even beyond, in an effort to stabilize the island's wobbly economy.

The aim is to produce 10 million tons of sugar a year by 1970, almost double the usual pre-Castro crop.

This year's production already has passed five million tons, officials say, and it will hit six million by June 10.

The effort this year has consisted primarily of starting the harvest earlier than usual, of sending thousands of volunteers into the fields to cut the cane, and an increase in the use of cutting and loading machines.

A master plan calls for spending $451.6 million between now and 1970 to increase sugar mill capacity and further mechanize the harvest.

The money apparently will come from the Soviet Union.

The new emphasis on sugar production came after the failure of an all-out industrialization drive which Castro began on taking power.

That drive, plus a series of setbacks at the hands of nature, drove sugar production down to 3.8 million tons in 1963. Last year's crop wasn't much better. The government never released an official figure for it.

Agriculture in general has suffered from neglect. Food shortages plague the island.

Police Week

WILLIAM BRUNGS

WILLIAM GOFF

EDITOR'S NOTE — National Police Week, now being observed here and throughout the country, is a period set aside to remind citizens of the public service provided by all branches of law enforcement. All members of the Circleville Department will be introduced during the week. On today's card are William Brungs and William Goff, often the victims of mistaken identity due to their similar size and appearance.

Patrolman Brungs, a 10-year veteran, was born in Pickaway County Jan. 14, 1933. He has lived in the Pickaway County and Stoutsville areas all his life.

The local officer attended school at Washington Twp., Stoutsville and Circleville. He was graduated at Circleville High School in 1950.

Brungs' appointment as a regular patrolman came on May 4, 1955. Prior to joining the police ranks he was employed at Lockbourne Air Force Base with the civil engineers and in construction work.

He has attended schools conducted by the FBI, Bureau of Criminal Identification and investigation, and the Attorney General. He served four years with Circleville's Ohio National Guard unit.

THE PATROLMAN resides at 116 Town St. with his wife, Betty (Sheppard) Brungs. Married on Aug. 8, 1952, they have two children, Theresa, 12 and Steve 10.

Brungs is assigned to the first shift which is on duty from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Patrolman Goff, completing his seventh year with the Circleville force, was born June 16, 1935, in Circleville. He has lived here all his life.

A graduate of Circleville High School, class of 1953, Goff was appointed a regular patrolman June 1, 1958. He joined the force following a tour of duty with the U. S. Air Force.

He entered the Air Force Security Service in 1954 and served as an intercept radio operator until 1958. He spent 18 months at Tripoli, North Africa.

Patrolman Goff has attended police schools conducted by the BCI, FBI and Attorney General's Crime Control Clinic.

The officer, a key figure in handling the local department's administrative functions, lives at 135 Pleasant St. with his wife Becky (Strawser) Goff. They were married in September of 1958 and have three daughters, Lori, 5, Jodi, 3½ and Lisa, 1.

Goff is assigned to the first shift. His duty period runs from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Rhodes Plan For School Setup Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Board of Education is concerned over an administration bill to revise the school foundation program. But it's not looking for any fight with the legislature.

"The last thing we want is head-on controversy with the legislature," said Edward C. Ames of Toledo, chairman of the board's Legislative Committee, in recommending Monday that the board withhold formal comment at this time.

The board expressed "special concern and great interest," but recessed its meeting without formal reaction to the administration-backed measure.

The board's chief concern seemed to be the bill's proposed elimination of "incentive factors" for special education programs. Schools now get extra state aid for summer school and

By J. W. DAVIS
(For James Marlow)
WASHINGTON (AP) — America has so many freedoms that Americans are sometimes inclined to take them for granted.

One essential freedom is the freedom to move about, and who ever thinks about that?

One man who has given thought to it is Carl Madden, director of the Economic Research Department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Madden, talking to a reporter, ticked off four points:

1. People are free to move anywhere they want to.
2. Industry is free to move where it wants to.
3. Money is free to move where it wants to.
4. All sorts of information is free to move where it wants to.

In sum, Madden said, the United States has achieved a remarkable freedom and efficiency of movement.

The picture has changed vastly since 1900, when almost three-quarters of all manufacturing jobs were locked in the Industrial Crescent that extended from New England through New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the Great Lakes states to Chicago.

Now, in the 1960s, there is rapid industrial growth in the newer manufacturing sections — the Far West, the Southwest and Southeast. Madden pointed out this doesn't mean that industry has not grown elsewhere in the old manufacturing regions, for instance. It is a question of where industry is growing fastest, with the national total growing all the time.

"A country which has freedom of movement for people, industry and money capital will grow at different rates in different sections," Madden said.

"Over a long-time period the difference between the rates of growth are likely to diminish but I don't think they will ever disappear. It would be impossible to imagine that economic activity would be uniformly distributed over the country."

"As long as the economy of the whole country is growing, all areas in some sense can win. With the long-time gains in goods and services nationally, even the relatively slower growing parts of the country can share in the growth.

"We find the per capita income in the Southeastern states is still below the national average but coming closer than a decade ago."

"The Northeast, which once had the highest per capita income, has given way to the Far West."

And maybe all this could happen only in America.

HEARTBURN

Q. What is the cause of "heartburn"?

A. Heartburn is due to reflux or backward flow of stomach contents into the esophagus, the tube leading from the mouth to the stomach. Rich foods, and especially fatty foods, tend to produce occasional attacks of heartburn because of delay in stomach emptying. This gives rise to belching, with regurgitation or backflow of stomach acid into the esophagus.

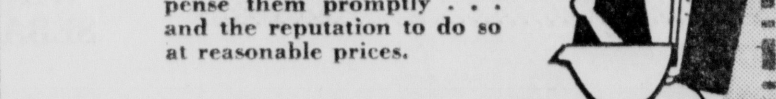

FERTILITY DRUGS

Q. Are there any drugs which will increase the fertility of women? I am still childless after 4 years of marriage.

A. There are two experimental drugs which show promise of overcoming infertility in women by making the ovulatory cycle more predictable. An interesting effect of these drugs is the increased incidence of multiple births. Women taking one of the drugs had a five to ten times higher incidence of twins than expected in the general population. However, these drugs are not yet available except for research purposes.

Rhodes Plan For School Setup Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The State Board of Education is concerned over an administration bill to revise the school foundation program. But it's not looking for any fight with the legislature.

"The last thing we want is head-on controversy with the legislature," said Edward C. Ames of Toledo, chairman of the board's Legislative Committee, in recommending Monday that the board withhold formal comment at this time.

The board expressed "special concern and great interest," but recessed its meeting without formal reaction to the administration-backed measure.

The board's chief concern seemed to be the bill's proposed elimination of "incentive factors" for special education programs. Schools now get extra state aid for summer school and

The World Today

By J. W. DAVIS
(For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON (AP) — America has so many freedoms that Americans are sometimes inclined to take them for granted.

One essential freedom is the freedom to move about, and who ever thinks about that?

One man who has given thought to it is Carl Madden, director of the Economic Research Department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Madden, talking to a reporter, ticked off four points:

1. People are free to move anywhere they want to.

2. Industry is free to move where it wants to.

3. Money is free to move where it wants to.

4. All sorts of information is free to move where it wants to.

In sum, Madden said, the United States has achieved a remarkable freedom and efficiency of movement.

The picture has changed vastly since 1900, when almost three-quarters of all manufacturing jobs were located in the Industrial Crescent that extended from New England through New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the Great Lakes states to Chicago.

Now, in the 1960s, there is rapid industrial growth in the newer manufacturing sections — the Far West, the Southwest and Southeast. Madden pointed out this doesn't mean that industry has not grown elsewhere in the old manufacturing regions, for instance. It is a question of where industry is growing fastest, with the national total growing all the time.

"A country which has freedom of movement for people, industry and money capital will grow at different rates in different such special programs as speech and hearing therapy and special education for slow learners.

ent sections," Madden said.

"Over a long-time period the difference between the rates of growth are likely to diminish but I don't think they will ever disappear. It would be impossible to imagine that economic activity would be uniformly distributed over the country.

"As long as the economy of the whole country is growing, all areas in some sense can win. With the long-time gains in goods and services nationally, even the relatively slower growing parts of the country can share in the growth.

"We find the per capita income in the Southeastern states is still below the national average but coming closer to a decade ago.

"The Northeast, which once had the highest per capita income, has given way to the Far West."

And maybe all this could happen only in America.

All members of the Circleville Department will be introduced during the week. The local officer attended school at Washington Twp., Stoutsville and Circleville. He was graduated at Circleville High School in 1950.

Brungs' appointment as a regular patrolman came on May 4, 1955. Prior to joining the police ranks he was employed at Lockbourne Air Force Base with the civil engineers and in construction work.

He has attended schools conducted by the FBI, Bureau of Criminal Identification and investigation, and the Attorney General. He served four years with Circleville's Ohio National Guard unit.

THE PATROLMAN resides at 116 Town St. with his wife, Betty (Sheppard) Brungs. Married on Aug. 8, 1952, they have two children, Theresa, 12 and Steve 10.

Brungs is assigned to the first shift which is on duty from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Patrolman Goff, completing his seventh year with the Circleville force, was born June 16, 1935, in Circleville. He has lived here all his life.

A graduate of Circleville High School, class of 1953, Goff was appointed a regular patrolman June 1, 1958. He joined the force following a tour of duty with the U. S. Air Force.

He entered the Air Force Security Service in 1954 and served as an intercept radio operator until 1958. He spent 18 months at Tripoli, North Africa.

Patrolman Goff has attended police schools conducted by the BCI, FBI and Attorney General's Crime Control Clinic.

The officer, a key figure in handling the local department's administrative functions, lives at 135 Pleasant St. with his wife Becky (Strawser) Goff. They were married in September of 1958 and have three daughters, Lori, 5, Jodi, 3½ and Lisa, 1.

Goff is assigned to the first shift. His duty period runs from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Here's Panorama Of Week's News

EDITOR'S NOTE—A story of needless trepidation in Seattle. A different form of smelting in Minnesota. Novel use of an old railroad station in Baltimore and a question of Indians as tourist attractions in New Mexico are among snippets from the U.S. scene this week.

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — The earthquake that didn't happen caused nearly as much consternation as the one that did. The Old Farmer's Almanac indicated a two-day earthquake period for the Northern Hemisphere beginning April 29. That's just when the Seattle quake came to pass, causing seven deaths and $15-million damage in the Puget Sound area. Then word got around that the almanac also warned of temblors May 5 and 26 in the Northern Hemisphere.

That takes in a lot of territory besides Seattle, but the jangled-nerve set was sure it meant a repeat performance.

Some people left town, others secured cupboard doors with rubber bands so they wouldn't fly open, a secretary wrapped some prize vases in dish towels and laid them carefully on the floor.

Came May 5 and nothing happened.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The old Mount Royal station would surprise the generations or railroad commuters who routinely filed through its cavernous waiting room.

The vaulted waiting room is now a lecture hall; the baggage room is a sculptors' studio, and second- and third-floor offices are painting lofts.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad closed the landmark to passenger traffic in 1961, and it stood desolate for a while. But the Maryland Institute College of Art recently bought the station and is putting its spaciousness to good use.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Rep. Clyde Dengler is one Republican who can call the tune for state legislative Democrats almost any time he wants and get away with it.

Dengler is leader of the legislative chorus.

A former professional singer, Dengler, of Upper Darby in Delaware County, helped create the legislative chorus in 1957, his freshman year in the House. He is director of music of the Upper Darby school system.

From its humble beginning as a quartet, the chorus grew to its present 21 members, comprising members of the House and Senate, lobbyists, legislative employees, and even a page boy or two here and there.

SANTA FE, N.M., (AP) — Tourist trade is a big factor in New Mexico's economy and the Indian is a big factor in the tourist trade.

Now the state's tourist promoters have to contend with a new survey report that says many outsiders couldn't care less about the Indians.

The report from a New York firm, under contract with the New Mexico Department of Development, said there was considerable feeling among those interviewed that if you've seen an Indian once, that's enough.

The Indian has been a mainstay in the state's national tourist promotion. The Indian will remain so, state tourist division officials say, because the state has a lot of Indians and there are a lot of tourists who want to see them.

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Dipping in the dark is still the best way to catch smelt.

Smelt are a silvery fish, larger than a sardine, smaller than a herring. They come to Lake Superior shores near Duluth in hordes each spring.

So do smelt fishermen. They came this spring equipped with catch containers ranging from ordinary waterpails to steel stock watering tanks mounted on trucks. Game wardens have an easy time. There is no bag limit.

While seining is permitted, the dip net on a pole is the smelter's standby in working the rocky shores and swift-flowing streams.

Dipping starts about 10 p.m. when smelt head for shore or upstream to spawn. Sometimes the score is big on each try in the frigid water. About 4 a.m., when the run stops, its back to the campfire for a fish fry and sleep.

CITIZEN AT 95 — Sukeichi Baba, 95, born in Hiroshima, Japan, holds an American flag in the Kuakini old people's home in Honolulu as he celebrates becoming an American citizen. Baba came to Hawaii as a young man. Federal Judge C. N. Tavares conducted the ceremony for him and eight other elderly men at the home.

TREES FOR PARK — A tree planting session has been completed at Ted Lewis Park through efforts of the Circleville Kiwanis Club and two local firms. Planted were 29 trees donated by the Cole Nursery. Included were Marshall seedless ash, green ash, crimson king Norway maple, columnar red maple, Bowhall red maple and summer shade Norway maple. Directing the task were W. Harold Clifton (right) president of City Council, and Forrest Croman, agriculture committee chairman for the Kiwanis Club. Keith Wagner, a superintendent with the local General Telephone Co., supervised the digging of holes using the phone company's equipment. The trees are being watered by Circleville Fire Department personnel.

Pickaway Grange Report

SCIOTO VALLEY

Scioto Valley Grange 2008 was host for the Spring meeting of Pomona 26 at their Grange Hall May 7th.

Worthy Master Dorsey Bumgarner, presided during the routine and ritualistic business procedures.

Mrs. John Dowler, home economics chairman, reviewed details of and progress of possibilities for the several cooperating projects for the year.

Th youth chairman, Harold Furniss, announced that the drill team had won second place in the state contest and that plans for cooperating with the annual talent contest are under way.

The youth department will arrange details of the county-wide grange picnic.

The current status of the building fund was reviewed by John Dowler, treasurer of the Building fund and county deputy master. Mr. Dowler also told of the continued protest of procedures relative to serving of intoxicating beverages in the Grange Building.

Current legislative issues were reviewed by Carl Bennett.

By transfer, Paul Dunkle became a member of Pomona 26. The program as arranged by the worthy lecturer, Leora Sayre, was in recognition of several important events in May. Emphasis was placed on features supporting better mental health and welfare for all people.

With Mrs. Ralph Dunkel, as accompanist, Paul Dunkle sang "If With All Your Hearts." To further recognize National Music Week Mrs. Dunkel and her daughter Kathy cooperated in some folk-song presentations with autoharp accompaniment.

Delbert Dorn of Madison County, and general agent of the Grange Insurance Co. used "Positive Approach" as his subject for reviewing the many mentally helpful features of Grange Membership and the Insurance.

The Red Cross, was discussed by Mrs. Boyd Stout. She told of ways which Grange members could cooperate with the several reciprocal services available.

The concluding number was "Farmers and World Affairs," by Lewis J. Hay. Mr. Hay presented his experience in Egypt.

This trip was made possible by Grange, Farm Bureau, and Farmers Union.

Salt Creek Valley Grange 2314 will be host for the Summer Pomona Session — August 13, 8 p. m. at the Grange Hall on the Fairgrounds.

Party Line Vote Opposes Education Tax

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio House Taxation Committee today recommended removal of a proposed one-cent increase in the retail sales tax from an initiated bill sponsored by the school lobby to get an additional $116 million a year for education.

The strictly party line vote returned the bill to the House Education Committee for action on the recommended deletion. The Taxation Committee received the bill earlier from the Education Committee for consideration of the tax provision. The bill sought to increase the three per cent sales tax to four per cent.

Rep. Sam Landes, R-Madison, offered the motion to eliminate the sales tax increase.

Rep. Walter L. White, R-Allen, Taxation Committee chairman, said in a statement that both parties stood opposed to a sales tax increase during the last political campaign. The Democratic State Platform specifically disapproved any sales tax increase to finance education.

"The Republican position," he said, "was opposed to any increase in taxation and pledged to operate the state within existing income and still maintain efficient progressive government."

Fair Attendance Down

NEW YORK (AP) — Attendance at the World's Fair for the first 20 days of this second and last season was 1,689,691 compared to 2,228,572 last year, a drop of 538,881.

Here's Panorama Of Week's News

EDITOR'S NOTE—A story of needless trepidation in Seattle. A different form of smelting in Minnesota. Novel use of an old railroad station in Baltimore and a question of Indians as tourist attractions in New Mexico are among snippets from the U.S. scene this week.

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — The earthquake that didn't happen caused nearly as much consternation as the one that did. The Old Farmer's Almanac indicated a two-day earthquake period for the Northern Hemisphere beginning April 29. That's just when the Seattle quake came to pass, causing seven deaths and $15-million damage in the Puget Sound area. Then word got around that the almanac also warned of temblors May 5 and 26 in the Northern Hemisphere.

That takes in a lot of territory besides Seattle, but the jangled nerve set was sure it meant a repeat performance.

Some people left town, others secured cupboard doors with rubber bands so they wouldn't fly open, a secretary wrapped some prize vases in dish towels and laid them carefully on the floor.

Came May 5 and nothing happened.

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The old Mount Royal station would surprise the generations or railroad commuters who routinely filed through its cavernous waiting room.

The vaulted waiting room is now a lecture hall; the baggage room is a sculptors' studio, and second- and third-floor offices are painting lofts.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad closed the landmark to passenger traffic in 1961, and it stood desolate for a while. But the Maryland Institute College of Art recently bought the station and is putting its spaciousness to good use.

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Rep. Clyde Dengler is one Republican who can call the tune for state legislative Democrats almost any time he wants and get away with it.

Dengler is leader of the legislative chorus. A former professional singer, Dengler, of Upper Darby in Delaware County, helped create the legislative chorus in 1957, his freshman year in the House. He is director of music of the Upper Darby school system.

From its humble beginning as a quartet, the chorus grew to its present 21 members, comprising members of the House and Senate, lobbyists, legislative employees, and even a page boy or two here and there.

SANTA FE, N.M., (AP) — Tourist trade is a big factor in New Mexico's economy and the Indian is a big factor in the tourist trade.

Now the state's tourist promoters have to contend with a new survey report that says many outsiders couldn't care less about the Indians.

The report from a New York firm, under contract with the New Mexico Department of Development, said there was considerable feeling among those interviewed that if you've seen an Indian once, that's enough.

The Indian has been a mainstay in the state's national tourist promotion. The Indian will remain so, state tourist division officials say, because the state has a lot of Indians and there are a lot of tourists who want to see them.

DULUTH, Minn. (AP) — Dipping in the dark is still the best way to catch smelt. Smelt are a silvery fish, larger than a sardine, smaller than a herring. They come to Lake Superior shores near Duluth in hordes each spring.

So do smelt fishermen. They came this spring equipped with catch containers ranging from ordinary waterpails to steel stock watering tanks mounted on trucks. Game wardens have an easy time. There is no bag limit.

While seining is permitted, the dip net on a pole is the smelter's standby in working the rocky shores and swift-flowing streams.

Dipping starts about 10 p.m. when smelt head for shore or upstream to spawn. Sometimes the score is big on each try in the frigid water. About 4 a.m., when the run stops, its back to the campfire for a fish fry and sleep.

CITIZEN AT 95 — Sukeichi Baba, 95, born in Hiroshima, Japan, holds an American flag in the Kuikini old people's home in Honolulu as he celebrates becoming an American citizen. Baba came to Hawaii as a young man. Federal Judge C. N. Tavares conducted the ceremony for him and eight other elderly men at the home.

TREES FOR PARK — A tree planting session has been completed at Ted Lewis Park through efforts of the Circleville Kiwanis Club and two local firms. Planted were 29 trees donated by the Cole Nursery. Included were Marshall seedless ash, green ash, crimson king Norway maple, columnar red maple, Bowhall red maple and summer shade Norway maple. Directing the task were W. Harold Clifton (right) president of City Council, and Forrest Croman, agriculture committee chairman for the Kiwanis Club. Keith Wagner, a superintendent with the local General Telephone Co., supervised the digging of holes using the phone company's equipment. The trees are being watered by Circleville Fire Department personnel.

Party Line Vote Opposes Education Tax

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio House Taxation Committee today recommended removal of a proposed one-cent increase in the retail sales tax from an initiated bill sponsored by the school lobby to get an additional $116 million a year for education.

The strictly party line vote returned the bill to the House Education Committee for action on the recommended deletion.

The Taxation Committee received the bill earlier from the Education Committee for consideration of the tax provision. The bill sought to increase the three per cent sales tax to four per cent.

Rep. Sam Landes, R-Madison, offered the motion to eliminate the sales tax increase.

Rep. Walter L. White, R-Allen, Taxation Committee chairman, said in a statement that both parties stood opposed to a sales tax increase during the last political campaign. The Democratic State Platform specifically disapproved any sales tax increase to finance education.

"The Republican position," he said, "was opposed to any increase in taxation and pledged to operate the state within existing income and still maintain efficient progressive government."

Guilds Play Key Role at Berger

Recognition Extended Here During Hospital Week Event

This is an appropriate week to pay tribute to the many Guilds that support Berger Hospital.

The occasion is "National Hospital Week," a public education event sponsored by the American Hospital Assn. It is observed by all hospitals throughout the United States from May 9-15.

Berger's Board of Governors, medical and dental staff members and hospital personnel have extended grateful recognition to the outstanding individual and General Guild activities designed to improve the local facility. The gesture of appreciation is shared with the Pickaway County community.

Spokesmen point out that the hospital is a flexible and dynamic institution — one that responds and reacts to changing medical needs of any locality. National Hospital Week provides an opportunity for the community to learn more about hospital services that are maintained to guard and restore health.

THERE are 46 Guilds here actively engaged in Berger improvement projects. Their determined goal is to give the community the best services possible in hospital care.

Guild contributions have been many, past and present. One of the major projects came earlier this year when the old maternity wing was remodeled and refurbished — an undertaking that increased Berger's capacity by 11 medical and surgical beds. The total cost was $9,500.

Another priority project came about when the need for a second major operating room was indicated. The Guilds quickly responded by asking for a list of equipment that would be needed to make this service available. After the list was provided, the Guilds moved ahead in high gear to purchase all stainless steel equipment and instruments. Total cost of the equipment was $833.19, the instruments $790.

The size of the task at hand is reflected by the total cost of $3097.52 to equip Operating Room No. 2. Needed equipment for the dietary and X-Ray departments also was purchased by the Guilds.

In addition to the projects already mentioned, the General Guild's annual gifts to Berger amounted to $1,821.20. Included were: American sterilizer surgical light, $1,230; hot pack warmer, $317; two portable treatment lights for the emergency room, $196; and three pairs of safety bed side rails, $138.

THE GUILDS' objectives do not end with financial assistance. They express a deep interest in the patients' enjoyment during their stay in Berger.

An example of this patient interest are the unusual holiday favors made by various Guilds for food trays. These mean much to those away from home and family on holidays.

Bolstering the larger projects of the General organization are the many individual Guild gifts. Here are some of their more recent contributions:

Guild No. 1, baumomantor and operating room stainless steel stool; Guild No. 2, Mayo stand and operating room stool; Guild No. 6, instrument table; Guild No. 8, Mayo stand; Guild No. 19, kick basin stand; Guild No. 29, single ring stand; Guild No. 40 double ring stand; Guild No. 20, kick basin oval; Guild No. 31, operating room stool; Guild No. 41, Mayo stand; Guild No. 38, vegetable cutter for dietary; Guild No. 37, executive office chair for the X-ray department.

Instrument gifts were provided by Guilds 3, 4, 7, 12, 13, 20, 23, 27, 28, 35, 39, 42, 43, 44, 45. Each year the ladies of the Guilds come forth with the motto: "Let's do more for the hospital." For this reason hospital officials define the Guilds as "the heartbeat of Berger."

1943 Prison Escapee Slated for Hearing

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Ransome Gardner, who police say walked away from an Alabama prison in 1943, will have a hearing in Municipal Court June 10 on a fugitive warrant. Gardner, 48, is free on $500 bond. He was picked up Monday by Youngstown police from information provided by prison officials in Montgomery, Ala.

Youngstown detectives said Gardner had served two or three months of a 10-year term for robbery before his escape.

Ex-GI's Memory Helps Him To Avoid Deadly Disaster

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—Scrapyard worker Richard Miller may have come about as close to disaster as a man can get, but his memory may have saved him—and many others.

He was cutting way Tuesday at what the thought was a round weight used to knock down walls in demolition work when he recognized some screws he had seen as a serviceman. He'd seen them on bombs.

He put down his torch and told scrapyard owner Robert Shaevitz, who had obtained the object two months ago from a scrapyard in Jackson and also thought it was a demolition weight.

The "thing" turned out to be a live 500-pound warhead from a Tiny Tim Rocket containing 250 pounds of explosives.

A bomb disposal unit from Clinton County Air Force Base at Wilmington was called in. Experts said the bomb was not armed, but refused to move it unless Shaevitz assumed liability for removing the explosive and agreed to pay the $800 it would cost to transport it to the Ravena Arsenal, more than 175 miles away. Shaevitz balked.

Mayor Charles H. Fair, a retired Army colonel, entered the picture, did a fast job of slicing military red tape and the live warhead was moved out of the city Tuesday evening.

Fair got on the telephone and called an "old army buddy" at Ft. Meade, Md. He received immediate authorization for the military to remove the warhead. Chillicothe Iron & Metal Co. workmen, supervised by the bomb disposal experts, gently picked the bomb up by crane, loaded it onto a truck and took it to an airport three miles north of the city. It was under guard through the night.

A helicopter was to fly here from Dayton this morning to move the warhead to the Ravena Arsenal.

Although the warhead was not armed, Lt. Michael Ryan of the Air Force bomb unit said he was surprised it had not gone off—being banged around as much as it had. He said a jolt, heat or pressure could have set it off—and that it was powerful enough to level a city block.

Army Widow Aids Village Where Husband Was Killed

SUFFERN, N.Y. (AP) — A pretty, young Army widow who aided a Vietnamese village with medicines and infant food in memory of her husband now proposes to help children there with school supplies.

From her farmhouse outside this village of 5,500, Barbara Spruill discussed her interest in the Mekong River delta village of Cai Son, 10,000 miles away.

"Jim had talked often about the school and the children," said Mrs. Spruill, 32. "He was teaching a small English class."

Her husband, Capt. James P. Spruill of Plymouth, N.C., lived in Cai Son for five months as military adviser until his Jeep touched off a Communist land mine a year ago. The blast killed him, a U. S. Army sergeant and three Vietnamese soldiers.

In the captain's letters, and later in his diary, Mrs. Spruill read of another Viet Cong mine explosion that had gravely injured four children. The diary noted that this emergency had wiped out the village's medical supplies.

"Jim was trying hard to do something there," Mrs. Spruill said.

She wrote to several U.S. pharmaceutical companies, asking for medicines, infant formulas and powdered milk. They responded with the gifts and paid for shipping them.

"The Vietnamese made a big ceremony of accepting them," Mrs. Spruill said, opening a scrapbook to copies of speeches by local dignitaries. The main speaker had been Lt. Col. Nguyen Khac Tuan, chief of the Vinh Long Province.

"I don't think I'm going to contact any school supply firms," she said. "I probably will just send the money and maybe they can purchase Vietnamese supplies and that way it wouldn't be another isolated American gift."

The Army compiled excerpts from his Viet Nam letters in a 12-page booklet, "The Line is Drawn."

This and other mementos adorn the farmhouse apartment: a Purple Heart and other medals, framed behind glass. A portrait of the West Point cadet. A snapshot of the captain in Viet Nam, a sub-machine gun casually held in one hand. A fat scrapbook.

They keep alive the memory for Barbara Spruill and her two children, Mark, 8, and Elisabeth, 5.

On the wall hangs a work of wood, sent to her by the colonel on behalf of his people.

The villagers also erected a stone monument on the spot where the jeep was blasted. It bears the names of the victims, the date and the words, "Well done. Be thou at peace."

"Jim had talked often about the school and the children," said Mrs. Spruill, 32. "He was teaching a small English class."

Her husband, Capt. James P. Spruill of Plymouth, N.C., lived in Cai Son for five months as military adviser until his Jeep touched off a Communist land mine a year ago. The blast killed him, a U. S. Army sergeant and three Vietnamese soldiers.

In the captain's letters, and later in his diary, Mrs. Spruill read of another Viet Cong mine explosion that had gravely injured four children. The diary noted that this emergency had wiped out the village's medical supplies.

"Jim was trying hard to do something there," Mrs. Spruill said.

She wrote to several U.S. pharmaceutical companies, asking for medicines, infant formulas and powdered milk. They responded with the gifts and paid for shipping them.

"The Vietnamese made a big ceremony of accepting them," Mrs. Spruill said, opening a scrapbook to copies of speeches by local dignitaries. The main speaker had been Lt. Col. Nguyen Khac Tuan, chief of the Vinh Long Province.

"I don't think I'm going to

The Army compiled excerpts from his Viet Nam letters in a 12-page booklet, "The Line is Drawn."

This and other mementos adorn the farmhouse apartment: a Purple Heart and other medals, framed behind glass. A portrait of the West Point cadet. A snapshot of the captain in Viet Nam, a sub-machine gun casually held in one hand. A fat scrapbook.

They keep alive the memory for Barbara Spruill and her two children, Mark, 8, and Elisabeth, 5.

On the wall hangs a work of wood, sent to her by the colonel on behalf of his people.

The villagers also erected a stone monument on the spot where the jeep was blasted. It bears the names of the victims, the date and the words, "Well done. Be thou at peace."

WOODY ROMPS — Jimmy Wood, leading here in the 120-yard high hurdles, set two South Central Ohio League records and tied a third in yesterday's meet at Miami Trace. He won the highs in 14.9, the lows in 19.1 and the 220-yard dash in 22.0. The mark in the low hurdles is the fastest recorded in the state this year.

WINNING HEAVE — Gene Smith threw the discus 133 feet 3 inches yesterday in the league track meet at Miami Trace to place first in the event. It was one of seven firsts won by the Tigers in the annual cinder event.

Junior High Is Second At Frankfort

Circleville's junior high track team tied for second in the sixth annual Frankfort Relays yesterday.

The winner of the event was Chillicothe J. A. Smith with 43 points. Second place goes to Circleville and Union with 35½ points each. Next was Southeastern with 34. Paint Valley had 26, Chillicothe Mt. Logan 24, Frankfort 10 and Huntington three.

Circleville had only two firsts, but had good balance in scoring.

Don Cordle won the shot and Ricky Sims the 120-Yard low hurdles.

Cordle ran on both relays which finished third. The 440-yard relay team was Eddie Wells, Cordle, Jim Samuel and Mike Kaylor. The 880-relay team was Chuck Downing, Cordle, Richard Lovenshiemer and Bruce Liston.

Wells was third in the hurdles and Samuel fifth in the high jump. Samuel also tied for fourth in the pole vault.

Downing was third in the 440, Lovenshiemer fifth in the 220, Liston fourth in the 220 and the shot put Melvin Smith third in the 880 and Dale Byrd fifth in the discus.

The junior high travels to Southeastern Thursday for a meet.

Vikings Trip Logan Elm In 4-0 Tilt

Teays Valley defeated visiting Logan Elm, 4-0, last night in a game played under the lights on the Viking diamond.

Charlie Griffey was the winning pitcher. He allowed two hits, fanned five and walked one in his seven inning stint.

The losing pitcher was Jeff Lutz, in spite of a fine two-hit performance. He fanned 11, walked two and hit one batter with a pitched ball.

The hits off Lutz were an infield single by Bill Dore and a triple by Griffey.

In the first inning, Dore reached first on an error, stole second and moved to third on an error. He then scored on a ground ball hit by Mitch Clay.

The next run for the Vikings came when Griffey tripled and then scored on an error.

In the sixth inning, Clay reached first on an error, stole second and third and the scored copped the most first place wins.

Paced by Jim Wood, the Tigers actually finished first in seven of the 15 events of the league meet.

The final team scores saw Wilmington finish with 70 points, Washington C. H. second with 66 points, Circleville next with 64 points, Miami Trace with 25, Hillsboro with 10 and Greenfield last with five.

Jim Wood, who has dominated the high and low hurdle events for the past three years, bowed out of South Central competition in a blaze of glory as he established two new records and tied a third in posting three wins.

In the high hurdles, the slender timber topper capped one tenth of a second from the record he set last year, winning easily in 14.9. The 180-yard low hurdles saw Wood blaze to a win in 19.1, the best time recorded in the state this year for the event. He set the mark last year in 19.7. In the past three years, Wood has set a mark each time in the lows.

In the 220 yard dash, Wood edged Bucky Scott at the finish to get his third win. His time of 22.0 tied the old record in the event.

Outstanding as his efforts were, they did not outshine George Ramey's record breaking shot put toss.

On his third and final heave, Ramey put the shot 50 feet ¾ of an inch to better the mark of 49 feet 11¼ inches set in 1954 by Circleville's George Troutman.

Another outstanding effort for the Tigers came in the mile run where senior Larry Morgan ran a carefully planned race to win in 4:49.8.

Morgan led at the first quarter with a time of 61.5, only a little faster than he expected for the distance, was still leading at the half in 2:15, and was on top at the three-quarter mark in 3:34. His planned mile called for a three-quarter time of 3:35.

DOUG PRICE defended his high jump title, clearing the bar at 5-feet 11-inches and Gene Smith hurled the discus 133-feet 3-inches for the Tigers other two wins.

Wilmington had only three first place efforts, but the depth laden Hurricane placed two men in five other events to account for their winning margin.

The Hurricane's speedy Bucky Scott, tabbed as a possible triple winner in the 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, won only the 440.

However, he set a record in the 100-yard dash in a preliminary heat with a time of 9.9. In the finals, he was edged by Gary Card, whose time of 10.0 was better than the previous record of 10.1.

League officials stated, however, that Scott's time in the preliminary would be entered as a new loop mark, in spite of the fact he was second in the finals of the event.

Scott's time of 51.15 erased on a sacrifice by Cook. Griffey laid a perfect squeeze bunt to score Dafe for the final run of the game.

Teays Valley plays Westfall tonight on the Viking diamond.

Fighter Suffers Brain Injury

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Heavyweight boxer Lucien (Sonny) Banks remained in critical condition today at Presbyterian Hospital where he was operated on for a brain injury suffered in a fight.

Banks, 24, of Detroit, suffered a subdural hematoma Monday night when he was knocked out by Leotis Martin of Philadelphia in the ninth round of a 10-round feature bout.

A subdural hematoma is a blood clot between the third level of the skull and the brain. It is caused by a hemorrhage from a severe concussion.

Martin, 24, kayoed Banks with a short right to the temple. As Banks fell he hit his head on the floor of the ring.

The win there gave the Hurricane a seven point lead and with only the shuttle hurdles to go, neither of the contenders had a chance.

In recapping the meet, Tiger Track Coach Jim Lint said, "The boys gave 110 per cent effort, and that's all I can ask. 'With a healthy (Doug) Pontious I think we could have won,' he continued.

The Tiger coach was referring to Pontious' left ankle, reinjured yesterday during the pole vault. Prior to sustaining the injury early in the season, the Tiger vaulter had consistently been clearing 11-feet 6-inches in the event, and was also a strong contender for the 440-yard dash.

The ankle definitely had its effect on the Tiger competitor who still ran in the 440 and also gave the Tigers an excellent effort in the first leg of the mile relay.

ANOTHER record set in the track meet was in the shuttle hurdle relay where the winning Washington team posted a time of 1:00.6.

Placing second, the Circleville hurdle relay team had a time of 1:01.2 bettering the mark of 1:02.2 set last year.

The next action for the Tiger track team comes at Whetstone High School Thursday in the sectional meet.

Bret Hanover Eyed In $125,236 Pace

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Bret Hanover, harness racing's 1964 Horse of the Year and unbeaten in his 25 career races, goes after the $125,236 Cane Pace at Yonkers Raceway tonight.

And the 3-year-old colt is a prohibitive 1-5 favorite to win this first leg of pacing's triple crown.

Crampton Avoids Lake To Win Colonial

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A man must face up to his obligations to the game when the chips are down Bruce Crampton mused as he sighted down the weary fairway toward hole No. 18 and "Crampton Lake" at Colonial Country Club.

Three years ago, Crampton lost the Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament by sending his approach shot into that lake. That's why they named it for him.

"I thought about using an iron off the tee and just laying up to the hole so I wouldn't be taking any chances," said Crampton a handsome 29-year-old Australian who has been a big winner on the American tour.

He could take a bogey and still bag the $100,000 Colonial crown because he had a three-stroke lead over George Knudson, a Canadian, going into the final hole.

"But then I thought this was not the way a champion should play: I'd say this was being chicken. I wanted to prove to myself that I could whip this hazard. So I played it a straightaway and won."

Crampton started the final round Tuesday a stroke behind Kundson. But he proceeded to shoot a four-under-par 66, using only 29 putts, and his 276 for 72 holes equaled the second best in the 20-year history of the tournament.

It was four-under-par for the route, and the final round was played over soggy fairways and water traps.

Knudson managed a par 70 for 279 and second place and observed, "It wasn't that I lost the tournament — Crampton won it."

Crampton took down $20,000 for his victory and brought his total money winnings to $25,670.17, $37,754.06 when unofficial cash is added, and jumped to third place among the money winners for the year.

The final round here was postponed for two days because of rain, and the players were permitted to improve the lie.

Gardner Dickinson had a 68 and tied Tony Lema, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Don January for third place at 280. Each won $5,100. Knudson picked up $11,500 for second.

Ben Hogan and Sam Snead two of the elder statesmen of golf finished fairly high. Hogan had 284 and tied for ninth, winning $2233.34. Snead shot 286 and won $1,650.

Arnold Palmer, who won the Tournament of Champions last week, finished with 287 and took $1,300. Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player, others of the Big Three, did not play here.

Defending champion Billy Casper found the 7,134-yard

Colonial Country Club course tougher than last year and wound up with 283 and a tie for 22nd.

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — A man must face up to his obligations to the game when the chips are down Bruce Crampton mused as he sighted down the weary fairway toward hole No. 18 and "Crampton Lake" at Colonial Country Club.

Three years ago, Crampton lost the Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament by sending his approach shot into that lake. That's why they named it for him.

"I thought about using an iron off the tee and just laying up to the hole so I wouldn't be taking any chances" said Crampton, a handsome 29-year-old Australian who has been a big winner on the American tour.

He could take a bogey and still bag the $100,000 Colonial crown because he had a three-stroke lead over George Knudson, a Canadian, going into the final hole.

"But then I thought this was not the way a champion should play; I'd say this was being chicken. I wanted to prove to myself that I could whip this hazard. So I played it a straightaway and won."

Crampton started the final round Tuesday a stroke behind Knudson. But he proceeded to shoot a four-under-par 66, using only 29 putts, and his 276 for 72 holes equaled the second best in the 20-year history of the tournament.

It was four-under-par for the route, and the final round was played over soggy fairways and water traps.

Knudson managed a par 70 for 279 and second place and observed, "It wasn't that I lost the tournament — Crampton won it."

Crampton took down $20,000 for his victory and brought his total money winnings to $25,670.17, $37,754.06 when unofficial cash is added, and jumped to third place among the money winners for the year.

The final round here was postponed for two days because of rain, and the players were permitted to improve the lie.

Gardner Dickinson had a 68 and tied Tony Lema, Chi Chi Rodriguez and Don January for third place at 280. Each won $5,100. Knudson picked up $11,500 for second.

Ben Hogan and Sam Snead (two of the elder statesmen of golf) finished fairly high. Hogan had 284 and tied for ninth, winning $2233.34. Snead shot 286 and won $1,650.

Arnold Palmer, who won the Tournament of Champions last week, finished with 287 and took $1,300. Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player, others of the Big Three, did not play here.

Defending champion Billy Casper found the 7,134-yard

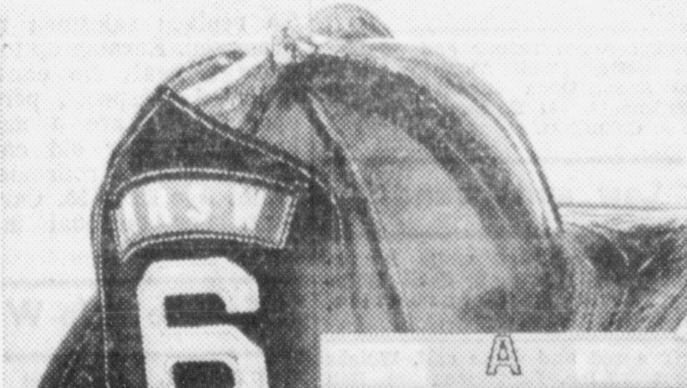

Colonial Country Club course tougher than last year and wound up with 283 and a tie for 22nd.

Lucky Debonair Is Ready For $150,000 Preakness

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lucky Debonair's trainer said, "He is fit now. There's just a question of keeping him that way until Saturday," when the 3-year-old colt tries to staple the Preakness to his Kentucky Derby laurels.

Frank Catrone's report could have been echoed Wednesday by the trainers of the eight or nine other colts expected for the Maryland fixture in the Triple Crown of racing.

The last tune-ups on the Pimlico track were held by Dapper Dan and Native Charger.

From now until they single-file to the post and break for 13-16 miles, gallops and wind-sprints will maintain the tone of this select group of thoroughbreds.

While waiting, Catrone disavowed any thinking about strategy.

"That's up to Willie Shoemaker," he insisted. "He's an old pro, has ridden this horse five times and knows what he can do.

"Besides, racing is 90 per cent luck." Shoemaker would agree with that. Although one of the nation's premier jockeys for years, this will be the first time he will be riding the Derby winner in the Preakness and thus have a chance at the Triple Crown.

Shoemaker guided Derby winners Swaps in 1955 and Tomy Lee in 1959, but neither came on to the Preakness. Shoemaker has had five other Preakness starters, three of them favorites, but won only on Candy Spots in 1963.

One reason Catrone said he doesn't concern himself with planning a race for Lucky Debonair is because "this horse can run in any position, up front or from behind."

Isador Bieber's Flag Raiser is expected to set the early Preakness Pace. He did it for a mile in the Derby with Lucy Debonair sticking close before Shoemaker pulled out in front entering the last quarter-mile.

The laggards are Ogden Phipps' Dapper Dan and Mrs. Ben Cohen's Hail to All. Dapper Dan was the biggest surprise at the Derby finish, zooming from last to second by a neck.

Pimlico officials have been promised decisions today on whether to count upon Raymond Guest's Tom Rolfe and Patrice Jacobs' Turn to Reason for the 90th running of their $150,000-added classic.

The official entries at $1,000 apiece are to be made Thursday and it will cost those starting another $1,000.

Vikings Win 3 Team Meet

Host school Teays Valley won a triangular track meet yesterday, scoring 86½ points compared to 45½ for The Plains of Mt. Sterling and 16 for Kingston.

First place efforts for the Vikings were turned in by Gary Wilson in the high jump and the broad jump with efforts of 5 feet 6 inches and 18 feet 1 inch respectively, and Dan Swank in the high hurdles and the mile run. His times were 18.2 for the hurdles and 5:12.9 for the mile.

Dan Annon won the 100-yard dash in 11.15 seconds. Gerald Green was a winner in the 180-yard low hurdles, posting his victory with a winning time of 23.5 seconds.

In the 880-yard run, Puckett of Teays Valley was the winner. The other first for the Vikings was in the pole vault where John Smith cleared the bar at 11 feet.

Harry Joyner of Wichita Falls, Tex., captains the West Point golf team.

Chance gave up only two hits until the ninth but both were homers — by Jerry Kindall in the first and Olivia in the sixth. The Angels, meanwhile, had knocked out Minnesota starter Dick Stigman in the first inning on a leadoff homer by Jose Cardenal, a single by Willie Smith and two walks. Smith's two-out triple and an error by reliever Dave Boswell had produced another LA run in the fifth.

Kindall drew a walk leading off the Twins ninth and Cesar Tovar ran for him. Olivia ripped a double into the right-field corner but Tovar, who was to be optioned to Denver after the game, was thrown out at the plate.

Olivia, who reached third on the play, broke for home on Killebrew's shot off Chance's leg. Chance ran the ball down but Olivia slid across safely as the pitcher's hurried throw got away from catcher Bob Rodgers.

Horton's two-out single in the ninth scored Don Wert and Don Demeter, capping the Tigers' comeback after Willie Kirkland's three-run homer and run-scoring triple had helped the Senators build a 6-0 bulge.

Demeter's three-run double and Horton's solo homer keyed a five-run Detroit uprising in the seventh.

The victory went to relief specialist Larry Sherry, 2-0, who blanked Washington on one hit over the last two innings. Sherry has allowed only one run in 25 1-3 innings this season.

Baltimore, shut out on one hit by Ralph Terry for seven innings, knocked out the Cleveland right-hander in the eighth, tied the score in the ninth and Boog Powell, a hit batsman and Hall's ground single to right.

New York's Edwards, acquired recently from Kansas City, and Mantle homered while Baker, picked up Monday in a trade with Cleveland, broke into the lineup with two hits as the Yankees struck for four runs in the fourth inning and held off the Red Sox behind right-hander Mel Stottlemyre.

Tribe Fails To Halt Rush By Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ralph Terry was going along fine towards his 100th major league victory when:

Charley Lau and Norm Siebern singled. Cleveland Indians Manager Birdie Tebbetts apparently figured Terry was tiring. So he pulled him.

Four Indian relief pitchers later the Baltimore Orioles had a 3-2 victory in the 11th inning. Gary Bell replaced Terry when the Indians had a 2-0 lead in the eighth inning. The two singles were the second and third hits Terry had allowed.

Bell gave up a run in the eighth and the tying run in the ninth. Don McMahon finished the ninth and Jack Kralick came on in the tenth.

Boog Powell opened the eleventh with a single but was forced at second by Dick Brown. Kralick then hit Siebern with a pitch and was relieved by Dick Donovan.

Terry was gunning for his fifth triumph and had allowed only one hit—Luis Aparicio's fourth-inning infield single—when the Orioles rallied in the eighth.

Lucky Debonair Is Ready For $150,000 Preakness

BALTIMORE (AP) — Lucky Debonair's trainer said, "He is fit now. There's just a question of keeping him that way until Saturday," when the 3-year-old colt tries to staple the Preakness to his Kentucky Derby laurels.

Frank Catrone's report could have been echoed Wednesday by the trainers of the eight or nine other colts expected for the Maryland fixture in the Triple Crown of racing.

The last tune-ups on the Pimlico track were held by Dapper Dan and Native Charger.

From now until they single-file to the post and break for 13-16 miles, gallops and wind-sprints will maintain the tone of this select group of thoroughbreds.

While waiting, Catrone disavowed any thinking about strategy.

"That's up to Willie Shoemaker," he insisted. "He's an old pro, has ridden this horse five times and knows what he can do.

"Besides, racing is 90 per cent luck."

Shoemaker would agree with that. Although one of the nation's premier jockeys for years, this will be the first time he will be riding the Derby winner in the Preakness and thus have a chance at the Triple Crown.

Shoemaker guided Derby winners Swaps in 1955 and Tomy Lee in 1959, but neither came on to the Preakness. Shoemaker has had five other Preakness starters, three of them favorites, but won only on Candy Spots in 1963.

One reason Catrone said he doesn't concern himself with planning a race for Lucky Debonair is because "this horse can run in any position, up front or from behind."

Isador Bieber's Flag Raiser is expected to set the early Preakness Pace. He did it for a mile in the Derby with Lucy Debonair sticking close before Shoemaker pulled out in front entering the last quarter-mile.

The laggards are Ogden Phipps' Dapper Dan and Mrs. Ben Cohen's Hail to All. Dapper Dan was the biggest surprise at the Derby finish, zooming from last to second by a neck.

Pimlico officials have been promised decisions today on whether to count upon Raymond Guest's Tom Rolfe and Patrice Jacobs' Turn to Reason for the 90th running of their $150,000-added classic.

The official entries at $1,000 apiece are to be made Thursday and it will cost those starting another $1,000.

Vikings Win 3 Team Meet

Host school Teays Valley won a triangular track meet yesterday, scoring 86½ points compared to 45½ for The Plains of Mt. Sterling and 16 for Kingston.

First place efforts for the Vikings were turned in by Gary Wilson in the high jump and the broad jump with efforts of 5 feet 6 inches and 18 feet 1 inch respectively, and Dan Swank in the high hurdles and the mile run. His times were 18.2 for the hurdles and 5:12.9 for the mile.

Dan Annon won the 100-yard dash in 11.15 seconds. Gerald Green was a winner in the 180-yard low hurdles, posting his victory with a winning time of 23.5 seconds.

In the 880-yard run, Puckett of Teays Valley was the winner. The other first for the Vikings was in the pole vault where John Smith cleared the bar at 11 feet.

Harry Joyner of Wichita Falls, Tex., captains the West Point golf team.

Chance gave up only two hits until the ninth but both were homers — by Jerry Kindall in the first and Olivia in the sixth.

The Angels, meanwhile, had knocked out Minnesota starter Dick Stigman in the first inning on a leadoff homer by Jose Cardenal, a single by Willie Smith and two walks. Smith's two-out triple and an error by reliever Dave Boswell had produced another LA run in the fifth.

Kindall drew a walk leading off the Twins ninth and Cesar Tovar ran for him. Olivia ripped a double into the right-field corner but Tovar, who was to be optioned to Denver after the game, was thrown out at the plate.

Olivia, who reached third on the play, broke for home on Killebrew's shot off Chance's leg. Chance ran the ball down but Olivia slid across safely as the pitcher's hurried throw got away from catcher Bob Rodgers.

Horton's two-out single in the ninth scored Don Wert and Don Demeter, capping the Tigers' comeback after Willie Kirkland's three-run homer and run-scoring triple had helped the Senators build a 6-0 bulge.

Demeter's three-run double and Horton's solo homer keyed a five-run Detroit uprising in the seventh.

The victory went to relief specialist Larry Sherry, 2-0, who blanked Washington on one hit over the last two innings. Sherry has allowed only one run in 25 1-3 innings this season.

Baltimore, shut out on one hit by Ralph Terry for seven innings, knocked out the Cleveland right-hander in the eighth, tied the score in the ninth and Boog Powell, a hit batsman and Hall's ground single to right.

New York's Edwards, acquired recently from Kansas City, and Mantle homered while Baker, picked up Monday in a trade with Cleveland, broke into the lineup with two hits as the Yankees struck for four runs in the fourth inning and held off the Red Sox behind right-hander Mel Stottlemyre.

Redlegs Drop Pair Of Players in Cutoff

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Infielder Steve Boros and rookie shortstop Tommy Helms were dropped from the Cincinnati Reds' roster Tuesday night to meet the 25-player limit requirement.

Both were sent to the Reds' San Diego farm club in the Pacific Coast League. Boros on an outright option and Helms on a 24-hour recall basis.

Tribe Fails To Halt Rush By Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ralph Terry was going along fine towards his 100th major league victory when:

Charley Lau and Norm Siebern singled. Cleveland Indians Manager Birdie Tebbetts apparently figured Terry was tiring. So he pulled him.

Four Indian relief pitchers later the Baltimore Orioles had a 3-2 victory in the 11th inning.

Gary Bell replaced Terry when the Indians had a 2-0 lead in the eighth inning. The two singles were the second and third hits Terry had allowed.

Bell gave up a run in the eighth and the tying run in the ninth. Don McMahon finished the ninth and Jack Kralick came on in the tenth.

Boog Powell opened the eleventh with a single but was forced at second by Dick Brown. Kralick then hit Siebern with a pitch and was relieved by Dick Donovan.

Terry was gunning for his fifth triumph and had allowed only one hit—Luis Aparicio's fourth-inning infield single—when the Orioles rallied in the eighth.

New Teachers Are Hired, 3 Resignations Accepted

The Circleville Board of Education continued its yearly task of employing new staff members for the next term during its regular monthly meeting last night with Superintendent Fritz Jacobs.

Three new teachers were hired during the session and resignations were accepted from three others.

Resignations accepted included those of James W. Shaw and his wife, Kathryn. They have accepted positions in Madison, Ind. The third resignation was that of Mrs. Lucille Webb, who is retiring from her profession. Hired was Mrs. Joanna Liggett, a CHS graduate, who will be assigned an elementary position. She is a graduate of Ohio State University with a BS degree.

MRS. MINNIE Steinhauser, currently teaching in the Westfall District, was employed for an elementary position in addition to Miss Carol Jones. Mrs. Steinhauser has four years experience and is an Ohio University graduate. Miss Jones has two years experience and is an OSU graduate currently teaching in Bexley.

Superintendent Jacobs reported to the school board that the building program is "moving along on schedule." He noted particularly the addition at Mound St. Elementary was "well under construction and the new high school site was being readied for foundation work."

A long list of recommendations for teachers' extra-curricular assignments was approved. At the top of the list was the approval of Steve Brudzinski, veteran coach and teacher, for the added duties of coaching the CHS golf team. Brudzinski had formerly coached the golfers for a number of years.

The board adopted a resolution to proceed with the purchase of a new school bus subject to state department approval for reimbursement. The new bus, if purchased, will replace a 1954 model.

Republicans Bypass Dem Opposition

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Senate Republicans have assured confirmation of five administration appointees by placing them in the Senate Rules Committee, beyond the reach of the Democrats.

Under the Constitution, the appointments will be automatically confirmed upon adjournment of the legislature if they are not acted upon.

The Republicans dominate the Rules Committee, 5-3, and can keep them bottled up indefinitely.

One of the appointments announced Tuesday will replace that of Carl A. Mintz of Cleveland as an employer representative on the Regional Workmen's Compensation Board of Review. Mintz was one of the five rejected by Democrats.

The governor named Louis J. Doria, Cleveland Republican, to replace Mintz on the board. The other four appointments are new. All Republicans, they are: Harold L. Yochum, Columbus, to the Education Assistance Commission.

Stanley J. McKie, Cincinnati, to the board of trustees of Miami University.

David H. Shawan, Bexley, to the Higher Education Assistance Commission.

Irving B. Warrick, Columbus, to the Interstate Compact on Juveniles.

16-Year-Olds Halted on Global Fling

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two 16-year-old youths who financed a fling to Hawaii with a stolen coin collection wound up in Juvenile Court Tuesday.

They were charged by Cleveland Heights police as runaways and habitual truants. The youths, both sons of Cleveland Heights physicians, told Judge Albert A. Woldman they wanted to see whether they could make their way in the world of adults.

Police told Judge Woldman the parents reported the boys missing March 10. The day before one of the boys took his father's coin collection—valued at $2,500—and sold it to a downtown dealer for $950.

They flew from here to California, then to Honolulu.

The arrests were made by Honolulu police after Cleveland Heights police informed them of a letter written by the youths to a friend in Cleveland Heights.

One youth, a musician, was playing saxophone with a five-piece jazz combo in Honolulu. The other boy was working in a store.

Judge Woldman ruled the boys were delinquent and sentenced them to indefinite periods of probation. He ordered that they make restitution for the coins and observe an 11 p. m. curfew.

commencement consisted of 180 seniors.

IN OTHER action, the board awarded a contract to the Pilot Life Insurance Co. for student insurance with Ralph Starkey as the local agent. The insurance rate will be $2 per student for to and from school coverage in addition to time spent at school; a 24-hour coverage will cost students $12 per term.

Also gaining board approval was the initiation of an elementary summer school program. Superintendent Jacobs indicated the program would be held beginning mid-June provided all students who have registered to date carry out their intentions.

The remedial programs in writing and arithmetic will be held from 9 a. m. until 11:15 p. m. daily Monday through Friday for six weeks or a total of 60 hours. Total costs will be $18 per student living within the city school district and an additional $2 for those residing outside the district.

Jacobs announced that applications for the remedial program are still being accepted although late applicants may be refused due to capacity enrollment. Classes will be held at Atwater School.

The superintendent informed the board that he was in the process of interviewing applicants for the basketball coaching position left vacant by the resignation of Don Neff.

Jacobs said that he has 24 applicants for the cage job. Interviews are being scheduled for the "top applicants" on Saturday morning and evenings through the week. He indicated he would have a recommendation for the vacancy at the June meeting of the board.

David H. Shawan, Bexley, to the Higher Education Assistance Commission.

mission back to the Dominican Republic from Washington in a new effort to find a settlement.

The OAS decided because of the Dominican crisis to postpone an inter-American conference of foreign ministers set for May 20 in Rio de Janeiro.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk arrived in London to explain American actions in the Dominican Republic and Viet Nam before a secret session of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

At the United Nations, the United States rejected a Uruguayan proposal that the Security Council call for an end to hostilities in the Dominican Republic and give Secretary-General U Thant a watchdog role. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said such action would complicate OAS efforts to restore peace so that the Dominicans could choose their own government.

In San Juan, P.R., an anti-Communist Dominican editor said he could "add 150 names to the list of Communists in the Dominican Republic issued by Washington."

"Communists controlled the so-called constitutional movement from the first instant," said Antonio Bonilla Aybar Jr., 33, nephew of the Dominican ambassador to the United States.

In Peking, Mao Tze-tung called on the world to unite for a "tit-for-tat" struggle against the United States. The chief of the Chinese Communist party said in a statement broadcast over Peking radio that "U.S. military intervention in the Dominican Republic has aroused a new wave against U.S. imperialism among the people of Latin America and the world."

16-Year-Olds Halted on Global Fling

CLEVELAND (AP)—Two 16-year-old youths who financed a fling to Hawaii with a stolen coin collection wound up in Juvenile Court Tuesday.

They were charged by Cleveland Heights police as runaways and habitual truants. The youths, both sons of Cleveland Heights physicians, told Judge Albert A. Woldman they wanted to see whether they could make their way in the world of adults.

Police told Judge Woldman the parents reported the boys missing March 10. The day before one of the boys took his father's coin collection—valued at $2,500—and sold it to a downtown dealer for $950.

They flew from here to California, then to Honolulu.

The arrests were made by Honolulu police after Cleveland Heights police informed them of a letter written by the youths to a friend in Cleveland Heights.

One youth, a musician, was playing saxophone with a five-piece jazz combo in Honolulu. The other boy was working in a store.

Judge Woldman ruled the boys were delinquent and sentenced them to indefinite periods of probation. He ordered that they make restitution for the coins and observe an 11 p. m. curfew.

commencement consisted of 180 seniors.

IN OTHER action, the board awarded a contract to the Pilot Life Insurance Co. for student insurance with Ralph Starkey as the local agent. The insurance rate will be $2 per student for to and from school coverage in addition to time spent at school; a 24-hour coverage will cost students $12 per term.

Also gaining board approval was the initiation of an elementary summer school program. Superintendent Jacobs indicated the program would be held beginning mid-June provided all students who have registered to date carry out their intentions.

The remedial programs in writing and arithmetic will be held from 9 a. m. until 11:15 p. m. daily Monday through Friday for six weeks or a total of 60 hours. Total costs will be $18 per student living within the city school district and an additional $2 for those residing outside the district.

Jacobs announced that applications for the remedial program are still being accepted although late applicants may be refused due to capacity enrollment. Classes will be held at Atwater School.

The superintendent informed the board that he was in the process of interviewing applicants for the basketball coaching position left vacant by the resignation of Don Neff.

Jacobs said that he has 24 applicants for the job. Interviews are being scheduled for the "top applicants" on Saturday morning and evenings through the week. He indicated he would have a recommendation for the vacancy at the June meeting of the board.

mission back to the Dominican Republic from Washington in a new effort to find a settlement.

The OAS decided because of the Dominican crisis to postpone an inter-American conference of foreign ministers set for May 20 in Rio de Janeiro.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk arrived in London to explain American actions in the Dominican Republic and Viet Nam before a secret session of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

At the United Nations, the United States rejected a Uruguayan proposal that the Security Council call for an end to hostilities in the Dominican Republic and give Secretary-General U Thant a watchdog role. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said such action would complicate OAS efforts to restore peace so that the Dominicans could choose their own government.

In San Juan, P.R., an anti-Communist Dominican editor said he could "add 150 names to the list of Communists in the Dominican Republic issued by Washington."

"Communists controlled the so-called constitutional movement from the first instant," said Antonio Bonilla Aybar Jr., 33, nephew of the Dominican ambassador to the United States.

In Peking, Mao Tze-tung called on the world to unite for a "tit-for-tat" struggle against the United States. The chief of the Chinese Communist party said in a statement broadcast over Peking radio that "U.S. military intervention in the Dominican Republic has aroused a new wave against U.S. imperialism among the people of Latin America and the world."
